There were 9 children in the family, the first 6 were born in Wisconsin the last 3 were born in Kansas. Four boys and five girls; John,

She spent most of the remaining years of her life in Lebanon. In 1978 Nellie along with her daughter Marguerite moved to Smith Center, Ks..
Her husband Arthur (1950) and two children preceded her in death, Evelynand Ralph.
It was at her home where all the Atwill children would come back, usually during the Lebanon Celebration, and have huge family reunions.
This would usually consist of anywhere from 30 grandchildren to 9 children and their spouses. And numerous Aunts and Uncles. It was a house full of love.
Nellie was a great cook, home-made noodles, pies, lots of good cooking going on in her kitchen.
Outside the big kids and the little kids had a huge yard to play different activities in. Football and baseball games were a big favorite. Some horseshoes were thrown, along with some jump rope and climbing the numerous trees she had in the yard.

Arthur J “Art” Atwill
Birth: 28 Oct 1887
Death: 7 Dec 1950 (aged 63)
Burial: Price Cemetery, Lebanon, Smith County, Kansas, USA

Memorial #: 61324019
Bio:
Arthur James Atwill was born to Ellen Adelia Webster and James Atwill on October 28, 1887, at Wichita, Kansas, and passed to his eternal rest December 7, 1950 at his home in Lebanon, Ks.
When but a small child he and his parents moved to Topeka, where he grew to manhood, then they moved to Jewell County.
It was here he met Nellie May Carpenter and they were united in marriage on March 1, 1911. To this union, eleven children were born.
He and his family moved to Smith county, living in the country near Lebanon until the winter 1931, when they moved to Lebanon.
In 1932 their hearts were made sad by the passing of their daughter Evelyn.
Art as he was known to his many friends, was a kind and industrious man, always working hard to provide the best for his family, of whom each one was very near and dear to him.
He and his wife were baptized and joined the U. B. Church at Independence while they lived on a farm in that neighborhood.
Although Art had been in failing health for some time he made no complaints. He took with patience what life had in store for him, even his last week in which he was in bed most of the time.Those who will miss him most are his loving wife, his three sons, Willard of the home. Eugene of Portland, Or., and Arthur of Smith Center; six daughters, Marguerite and Lois of Wichita, Mrs. Ada Spradlin, Orange Lake, Fl., Mrs. Lucille Shroeder, Superior, Ne., Mrs. Reida Holding, Bakersfield, Ca., and Lona Relihan of Lebanon; four grandsons and two granddaughters; also two sisters, Mrs. Ora Carpenter of Lebanon and Mrs. Claudie King of Kent, Wa. A brother, Eugene, and a sister, Mrs. Fanny Taylor, preceded him in death.
Funeral services were held Sunday December 10 at the Christian Church conducted by Rev. Loren Silsby, assisted by Rev. D.B. Tromler. Flower girls were members of the senior and junior high school classes and the pallbearers, all high school seniors were: Garth Renken, Jim Post, Gary Myers, Don McElfresh, Hugh Hendreickson and Carroll Beardslee.
Interment was in the Price Cemetery.

He was the son of William Eustace and his grandfather was James Eustace. James Eustace brought a lot of English colonisers to Kansas in 1870 and 1871.
Mary Alsop Kenneth's mother was the daughter of another coloniser, William Alsop from Berriew, Montgomeryshire, Wales .
Kenneth and Florence did not have children, so there are others who will not know the history that lies in these names.

Burial: Evergreen Memorial Gardens, Vancouver, Clark County, Washington, USA

Bio:
Marriage record and SS Applications of both sons give her name as Myra McGirra, but no other records are found with this surname. She was raised as Myra L Carpenter. Her father, Martin/Mark Carpenter changed his name from Martin M'Gira to Carpenter. He appears to have been raised by William H and Anna Carpenter, but his marriage record to Nettie Anderson (1884 Wisconsin) shows his name as Martin M'Gira and his parents as Thos M'Gira and Maria Schemerhorn. Apparently his daughters Myra and Rose used McGirra as their maiden names when they married.

Wisconsin State Journal 30 Oct 1952
Darlington- Mayor Frank Reichling, 52, who collapsed while conducting a City Council meeting Tuesday night, died Wednesday night in a Darlington hospital.
Reichling, who had apparently been in good health, collapsed suddenly during the council meeting, and was rushed to his home. He was taken to the hospital later.
The head of the Reichling Bros. garage here, Reichling was serving his second term as mayor. He was first elected in April, 1950, when he defeated incumbent Paul McGettigan by a 433 to 282 vote margin. In April of this year he was reelected to a second term, when he defeated Paul Peterson, first ward alderman, by 611 to 437. Reichling also was a former alderman from the second ward.
He is survived by his wife, Rella; two sons, Barney and Francis, both of Darlington; four daughters, Mrs. Robert Carl, Greenwood; Mrs. Harold Ayer, Wilton; Mrs. Arthur Seidel, Milwaukee, and Lois, at home; his father, John Reichling, Darlington; three brothers, Harold, Delbert, and Nick, all of Darlington; four sisters, Mrs. Frank McDonald, Darlington; Mrs. Catherine Cline, Cuba City; Mrs. William McDermott, Kendall and Mildred Reichling, Darlington.
The body was taken to the Scharer funeral hone here. City officials here said Jospeh Donahue, president of the Darlington City Council, probably would be named acting mayor until a successor to Mr. Reichling can be named.

WIKIPEDIA:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Siege_of_Bastogne
The 101st left Camp Mourmelon on the afternoon of 18 December, with the order of march of the division artillery, division trains, 501st Parachute Infantry Regiment (PIR), 506th PIR, 502nd PIR, and 327th Glider Infantry Regiment (GIR). Much of the convoy was conducted at night in drizzle and sleet, using headlights despite threat of air attack to speed the movement, and at one point the combined column stretched from Bouillon, Belgium, back to Reims, a distance of 120 kilometres (75 mi).

The 101st Airborne was originally supposed to go to Werbomont on the northern shoulder but was rerouted to Bastogne, located 107 miles (172 km) away on a 1,463 feet (446 m) high plateau, while the 82nd Airborne, because it was able to leave sooner, went to Werbomont to block the critical advance of the Kampfgruppe Peiper ("Combat Group Peiper"). The 705th Tank Destroyer Battalion—in reserve 60 miles (97 km) to the north—was ordered to Bastogne to provide anti-tank support to the armor-less 101st Airborne on 18 December and arrived late the next evening. The first elements of the 501st PIR entered the division assembly area 4 miles (6.4 km) west of Bastogne shortly after midnight of 19 December, and by 09:00 the entire division had arrived.

Brigadier General Anthony McAuliffe sent the 501st PIR southeast through Bastogne at 06:00 to develop the situation. By 09:00, it had advanced and deployed on either side of the highway to Magéret and Longvilly, where the Panzer-Lehr-Division (Armored Training Division) was engaged in an all-day action to destroy the armor-infantry combat teams assigned to slow the German advance. The 506th followed shortly thereafter, its 1st Battalion was sent to Noville to reinforce Major Desobry's team from the 10th Armored CCB while the other two battalions were ordered to act as reserves north of Bastogne. The 502nd PIR marched north and northwest to establish a line from Champs east to Recogne, while the 327th GIR, newly arrived, protected the division service area southwest of Bastogne until German intentions could be deciphered.
The 101st Airborne formed an all-round perimeter using the 502nd PIR on the northwest shoulder to block the 26th Volksgrenadier, the 506th PIR to block entry from Noville, the 501st PIR defending the eastern approach, and the 327th GIR scattered from Marvie in the southeast to Champs in the west along the southern perimeter,
...
It was on the 22nd of December that General von Lüttwitz submitted the following demand for surrender to his American counterpart commanding the American forces in Bastogne, Brigadier General Anthony McAuliffe:

To the U.S.A. Commander of the encircled town of Bastogne.

The fortune of war is changing. This time the U.S.A. forces in and near Bastogne have been encircled by strong German armored units. More German armored units have crossed the river Our near Ortheuville, have taken Marche and reached St. Hubert by passing through Hompre-Sibret-Tillet. Libramont is in German hands.

There is only one possibility to save the encircled U.S.A. troops from total annihilation: that is the honorable surrender of the encircled town. In order to think it over a term of two hours will be granted beginning with the presentation of this note.

If this proposal should be rejected one German Artillery Corps and six heavy A. A. Battalions are ready to annihilate the U.S.A. troops in and near Bastogne. The order for firing will be given immediately after this two hours term.

All the serious civilian losses caused by this artillery fire would not correspond with the well-known American humanity.

The German Commander.

Shortly thereafter, McAuliffe sent the following communication to von Lüttwitz in response to the German demand:[11]

To the German Commander.

NUTS!

The American Commander

The commander of the 327th GIR interpreted it to the German truce party as "Go to hell!".[12]

Despite the defiant American response to the surrender demand, the 26th VG received one Panzergrenadier regiment from the 15th Panzergrenadier Division on Christmas Eve for its main assault the next day. That night, at about 7:00 PM, Luftwaffe bombers attacked Bastogne, killing 21 in an aid station. Because it lacked sufficient troops and those of the 26th VG Division were near exhaustion, the XLVII Panzer Corps concentrated its assault on several individual locations on the west side of the perimeter in sequence rather than launching one simultaneous attack on all sides. The assault—led by 18 tanks carrying a battalion of infantry—pierced the lines of the 327th's 3rd Battalion (officially, the 1st Battalion, 401st Glider Infantry), and advanced as far as the battalion command post at Hemroulle.

(SIDE NOTE: This was the combat action from 23 to 24 Dec 1944 when Joseph Louis Carpenter was killed in action. He served with Company C, the 327th Glider Infantry Regiment (GIR), 101st Airborne Division. Company C was in the 1st Battalion of the 327th.
Per the map at: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Siege_of_Bastogne#/media/File:Bastogne_Map_December_19-23_1944.jpg - The 1st Battalion of the 327th held the line from Senonchamps southeast to the railroad line. The area is southwest of Bastogne.)

However, the 327th held its original positions and repulsed infantry assaults that followed, capturing 92 Germans. The panzers that had achieved the penetration divided into two columns, one trying to reach Champs from the rear, and were destroyed in detail by two companies of the 1st Battalion 502nd PIR under Lt. Col. Patrick F. Cassidy and four tank destroyers of the 705th Tank Destroyer Battalion.
...
Elements of General George Patton's Third Army succeeded in reaching Bastogne from the southwest, arriving from the direction of Assenois. The spearhead reached the lines of the 326th Engineers on December 26, Cobra King being the first tank to make contact at approximately 16:50.

Daniel C. Carpenter
BIRTH Mar 1815 Albany County, New York, USA
DEATH 15 Nov 1866 (aged 51) New York, New York County (Manhattan), New York, USA
Had come to NYC at a young age and first worked in the jewelry trade until about 1847 when he joined the police. He died at the home of Captain Lord near 8 o'clock, and had been recently indisposed on occasion, by a sharp pain near his heart or right lung.
This malady had beset him while at work, but he finished his shift and was on his way home to prepare for a banquet to Cyrus W. field, when he met up with Captain Lord of the Sanitary Squad. Lord observed that Carpenter exuded a "peculiar wildness" and arranged for him to be taken to his home nearby.
He was also a member of the Masons.
Noted as survived by a spouse and several children
Unveiling of his monument announced June 11, 1868.
Funeral from the Dutch reform church. He was likely moved to Cypress Hills from one of their cemeteries. Unknown if his large monument was moved with him.

Obituary
Sudden Death of Inspector Daniel Carpenter of the Metropolitan Police.
We regret to record the very sudden and unexpected death of DANIEL CARPENTER, one of the four inspectors of the Metropolitan Police.
His death was occasioned by heart disease, of which he had recently had some symptoms, up to yesterday he had been constant at his duty at headquarters, where, as we all know, he was a most capable and faithful officer.
His death was occasioned by heart disease, of which he had recently had some symptoms, Up to yesterday he had been constant at his duty at headquarters, where, as we all know, he was a most capable and faithful officer. Yesterday, about 2 o'clock, he was at headquarters in Mulberry-street, superintending the Police preparations for the grand banquet at the Metropolitan Hotel to CYRUS W. FIELD.
Having arranged matters to his satisfaction, he went home to dinner, in West Thirty-fourth-street, and shortly after returned to the Central Station. At the corner of Crosby and Bleecker streets, be was met by Capt. Lord, of the Sanitary Police, who observed a strange manner in him and took him under his care, called a coach and took lane to his (Lord's) home, on Twentieth street.
There Mr. CARPENTER laid down upon a sofa, in the parlor, and Captain Lord went to his dinner. Dinner being over, Capt. Lord returned to the parlor and found Mr. CARPENTER very ill. A physician was called and Mrs. CARPENTER was sent for, but before others had arrived the sufferer had expired.
DANIEL CARPENTER was a native of Albany, about 50 years of age. When a young man he came to New-York, where he was engaged in manufacturing jewelry. In 1847 or thereabouts he joined the old Police, then under the direction of GEORGE W. MATSELL and became Captain of the force in the Fifth Ward. At that time the Ward was one of the most important in the City. Long blocks of fine old dwellings, the residences of many of our best citizens, lined the streets; business had not begun to encroach upon the quiet streets, and at night its thoroughfares were awake with the busy life that is now crowded away beyond Union-square.

Beside this most desirable population, the Fifth Ward had the unenviable reputation of harboring the elite of the multitude (?), always a difficult class to control and regulate.
Mr. CARPENTER was peculiarly adapted for his work: he was patient, cool and inflexible. His administration was entirely successful, and within an unexpectedly brief period he became master of the situation, and the Ward soon became honorably noted for order and quiet.
When the Metropolitan Police was established, Mr. CARPENTER became an early adherent and practically the chief of the new force. In the great emergency at the City Hall, when mayor Worm undertook a defiance of the statute and was brought to bay in his office, the Hall was filled with his tools - the Municipal Police of odious fame.
The writer was then an officer of the City Government, and saw the entire contest. By some magic that need not be explained, Mr. Wood gave orders that Mr. CARPENTER should pass in and out without obstruction. The result was that while the riot was fiercely raging in the rear of the Hall, while the ever-memorable Seventh Regiment, then on the march to the Sound boats for a pleasure excursion, were ordered into the Park, and dropped their six hundred muskets upon the great stone step. [at which warning sound Mr. WOOD turned as pale as marble,]
Mr. CARPENTER quietly escorted the Mayor under arrest, to the Station of the new Police.
Thence to 1863, Mr. CARPENTER rose slowly but surely in popular and official favor. Ever prompt at his post, cool but firm, possessing a greater knowledge of the bad elements of our City population than any other man, he very naturally stood forth as the man for promotion. Therefore he was selected among the first to head the new Police organization, and was named for Inspector. He took the place, and was generally charged with routine duties at the general office. When the infernal riots of July 1863, broke out, he was foremost in zeal and activity.
The reader will remember that at the very outset of the riot General Superintendent KENNEDY was nearly killed by a mob, and so disabled from service. Mr. CARPENTER then took control, and to his vigorous efforts we own the preservation of thousands of lives and millions of property. Ho was prompt and an-tiring; in one instance he led a handful of his men against thousands of rioters who were rushing down Broadway to attack the Wall-street banks, but by a liberal use of the club stopped the infuriated demons, and very probably saved the vast treasures of specie and notes in the banking centre.
Mr. CARPENTER made millions of warm friends on that occasion, but, with characteristic modesty, he "made no sign" that he had done such important work. Since then be has fulfilled the exacting and important duties of Inspector in such manner as to win the unqualified approbation of the people.
Personally he was not a man to impress one favorably on brief acquaintance; but when one got through his brusque exterior he was sure to find in DANIEL CARPENTER a noble, manly, unselfish gentleman - a man in all the corruption of a great City, so far beyond suspicion that the most vindictive tongue could not breathe against him. His death is a great loss to the force, and will be deeply lamented "by the boys in blue," who have so long looked up to him as director and friend. The people, too, lose one of their chief protectors, and all, without exception, will feel the occurrence as a special, public and private misfortune.
Mr. CARPENTER leaves a wile ands we believe, some children, to lament this dreadful and most unexpected shock. They have the sympathies of every good citizen in the Metropolitan Police District.

About one hundred members of the Metropolitan Police, accompanied by Commissioner Acton, Superintendent Kennedy, Inspectors Mika and Walling, and several captains, accompanied by a number of private citizens, yesterday visited Cypress Hills Cemetery, to witness the ceremony of unveiling the monument of Inspector Carpenter. The monument is of white marble, twenty-three feet in height, and cost $3,100. The money was contributed by the members of the Police Department and a few of Mr. Carpenter's personal friends. He was one of the most courteous, efficient and kindhearted officers ever connected with the Police Department of this city. During the riots of 1863, be rendered invaluable services in putting down the rioters, and more recently he established a system which put s stop to the operations of pickpockets while it was enforced.

CARPENTER, Daniel, police inspector, b. in New York city about 1815 d. in New York city, 15 Nov., 1866. He joined the municipal police of New York in 1847, and was appointed captain and assigned to the 5th ward, which soon became noted. under his management, for order and quiet. His services were retained on the organization of the Metropolitan police district in 1857, and he became deputy superintendent. Through his exertions the force was rapidly organized, and has attained a high state of efficiency. For several months during 1859 he was acting general superintendent, subsequent to the resignation of Frederick A. Tallmadge. In 1860, on the abolition of the deputy superintendent-ship, he became senior inspector, and continued as such until his death. During the " draft riots " in New York in July, 1863, Supt. John A. Kennedy having been injured, the command of the police again devolved upon Inspector Carpenter, and the suppression of the riots was largely due to the energy and firmness displayed by him at that time.

Daniel C. Carpenter
Daniel C. Carpenter (1815 – November 15, 1866) was an American law enforcement officer and police inspector of the New York Police Department. He was one of earliest leading detectives on the police force during the mid-19th century and also had a prominent role in the Police Riot of 1857 and New York Draft Riots in 1863. His successful defeat of the rioters was the largest, and perhaps most crucial, battle during the riot. Fought in front of the Metropolitan Police headquarters, Carpenter's victory saved the New York financial district from falling into the hands of the rioters.

Biography
Early life and police career
Born in Albany, New York in 1815, Daniel Carpenter moved to New York City as a young man and where he was engaged in jewelry manufacturing until joining the Municipal police force around 1847. Then under command of George Washington Matsell, Carpenter was appointed captain of the Fifth Ward. One of the most important posts in the city, the area was populated by many members of New York's prominent citizens. Carpenter was described as "patient, cool and inflexible" and his administration over the Fifth Ward was largely successful in keeping order and quiet. Throughout his career, he was described as "a noble, manly, unselfish gentleman - a man in all the corruption of a Great city, so far beyond suspicion that the most vindictive tongue could not breathe against him".[1]

Police & Draft Riots

Upon the formation of the Metropolitan Police Department in 1857, Carpenter was one of the majority of officers who joined the new police force. During the Police Riot of 1857, Carpenter was reportedly able to enter City Hall and officially serve the arrest warrant to Mayor Fernando Wood and escort him to Metropolitan Police Headquarters. Becoming very knowledgeable of the New York underworld, he was eventually appointed a police inspector shortly after the police riot.[1]

During the New York Draft Riots, Carpenter was one of the most active officers who fought against the rioters. After Superintendent John Kennedy was attacked by a mob and hospitalized, overall command of the police force fell to Commissioner Thomas Coxon Acton and John G. Bergen while Carpenter took command of police squads on the streets. His most memorable action during the riot was the defense of the New York financial district and the U.S. sub-treasury. With drillmaster Sergeant Theron S. Copeland, he assembled what remained of the police force, which was then about 125 men, and in a brief speech to the officers said "We are going to put down a mob, and we will take no prisoners". Carpenter and Copeland then led the small squad through Mulberry and Bleecker Streets until meeting the thousands of rioters marching down Broadway. Although both sides were armed with clubs, the male and female rioters also possessed crowbars, swords and pistols. The mob, which numbered as much as 10,000 rioters, reportedly filled up the street from corner to corner and with the head of the mob carrying an American flag and a large sign with "No Draft" written on it.[2]

He deployed his men in four lines of skirmishers across Broadway, and marching northward, made contact with rioters at Amity Street just south of La Farge House where rioters were attacking negro servants. Carpenter led the first assault, supported by Patrolman Doyle and Thompson, and supposedly killed the first thug which challenged him with a bludgeon. Patrolman Thompson seized the American flag while Doyle killed the rioter holding the "No Draft" sign. The front rank of the mob had been halted for a moment but soon responded by throwing brickbats and paving stones. Several officers were seriously wounded in the assault, but the rest of the squad closed ranks and continued their march clubbing rioters with each step. The mob gradually began to give way and, after 15 minutes of heavy fighting, the rioters broke and scattered in all direction with officers following them into sidestreets while the dead and wounded lay on the streets and sidewalks. This was the farthest the rioters would advance, the remaining mobs being confined to central Manhattan.[2]

He and Inspector John S. Folk also faced the rioters who had fled from the New York Tribune after being driven away by Captain Warlow and Captain Thorne. Sweeping City Hall Park of the remaining rioters, Folk returned to Brooklyn while Carpenter left behind 50 men to guard the New York Tribune offices while he and the rest of the squad went on to other threatened parts of the city. He was later joined by Captain John J. Jourdan who made a tour of the notorious Fourth Ward and the waterfront district.[3]

On the second day of the riot, at about 6:00 am, Carpenter left Metropolitan headquarters with a squad of 200 officers and marched uptown where rioters had appeared on Second Avenue and were threatening the Union Steam Works. Moving the detachment into Second Avenue a block below the Union Steam Works, Carpenter once again deployed his men into lines of skirmishers with two lines of men marching slowly northward. The rioters, who had grown even more confrontational towards the police, were now armed with muskets, pistols and swords while others invaded nearby homes and buildings to throw bricks and stones from the rooftops. The police met little resistance at first ut were then met at Thirty-Second Street by a shower of brink and stone into the squad injuring many police officers. The mob had been slowly closing in from behind, surprised the police by attacking from the front and rear, but Carpenter and his men fought so fiercely that they managed to clear the street after 15 minutes of fighting. With the frightened mob huddled in small groups a hundred feet from the police, Carpenter ordered 50 of his men into the surrounding buildings to chase out the rooftop rioters. Many of the rioters fell from the roofs and were killed while others who managed to escape into the street were caught by Carpenter and his men. It was during this engagement that a nearby saloon was taken over by rioters armed with muskets and pistols, but Carpenter's men were able to force them out without any casualties.[4]

When Carpenter saw Colonel H.J. O'Brien and 150 infantrymen, sent by Major General C.W. Sandford, he launched a second assault against the rioters. In spite of heavy fire from rioters, both from muskets and debris thrown from the rooftops, Carpenter and O'Brien were able to defeat the rioters with the help of artillery fire under Lieutenant Eagleson. After the rioters had been dispersed, Carpenter continued on to the tour the eastern part of the city and where he attacked several smaller mobs still remaining in the streets. Later that night, he and his squad arrived to clear out the Brooks Brothers clothing store after several officers had been shot and killed by rioters looting the store.[4]

Death
On the afternoon of November 15, 1866, Carpenter was at Metropolitan police headquarters on Mulberry Street where he oversaw police preparations for the grand banquet held at the Metropolitan Hotel in honor of Cyrus W. Field. At around 2:00 pm, Carpenter left the station for his home on West Thirty-Fourth Street. He returned to headquarters after having dinner with his family however, met by Captain Lord of the Sanitary Police at the corner of Crosby and Bleecker Streets, the captain "observed a strange manner in him" and took Carpenter to his home on Twentieth Street. Carpenter rested on a sofa in the parlor while Lord had dinner. When Lord returned after eating his meal, Carpenter had become gravely ill. Both a physician and his wife were called for but Carpenter died before either arrived.[1] He was succeeded by George Washington Walling, who eventually became police chief of the NYPD.[5]

E-MAIL: Wed, 14 Jun 2000 From: "John L. Carpenter"
I also found a short info piece on a Frances Marshal Carpenter Chairman of Westchester County 1863 - 1896 Board of supervisors a Civil war vet He was a son of Zopher settled in that town in 1736.
Also a customer book of Isaac Carpenter listing several Carpenter families in New castle.
SEE NEXT:
1879-1925 The 432 people who voted in the election of 1889 could hardly have fitted into a private house for a town meeting but, other than that, little seems to have been changed by the formal establishment of a town board. In that year, Francis Carpenter was elected supervisor, as he had been most years since first elected in 1863. . The history of this period is dominated by three long term supervisors- Francis Carpenter, John Bowron and Howard Washburn -each of whom is remembered in a different way. One went on to higher offices in the county and state, one was forced to resign, and one was the sub- ject of indictment and trial for misuse of his office, Francis Marshall Carpenter was 26 years old when he was first elected supervisor,in 1863. His forebears, origi- nally from Wales, had first settled in the town in 1736 and had long been active in community affairs. His father, Zopher, had served two terms as town clerk and three terms as supervisor, and two other members of the fami1y had been supervisors.

Carpenter was supervisor for three periods, totalling 31 years (1863 to 1868, 1871 to 1886, and 1888 to 1896). During four of those years, he also served as chairman of the Westchester County Board of Supervisors. After his terms as supervisor, he was elected county treaSUrer(1897 to 1903), served in the New York State Senate (1904 to 1909) and later was a mernber of the Board of Regents. In 1875, during Carpenter's second period as super- visor, Mount Kisco, then partly in the Town of New Castle and partly in the Town of Bedford, was granted incorporated village status by the state legislature.

DEATH: 1895 per E-MAIL cited below.
We know he died in 1885 (apparently after falling down some stairs according to a newspaper article) and that he may have been the first mayor of Hudson City, New Jersey which was previously known as Hudson Town and ultimately became part of what is now Jersey City in 1870.

You have him listed as marrying Louisa "Shelf" which is accurate but in all liklihood her maiden name was actually "Schelpf" which is consistent with the name of Antinette "Shelpf" (more likely correctly spelled "Schelpf") as reflected on the 1870 Census who it would seem is the younger sister of Louisa. In addition, Erastus and Louisa owned an establishment (hotel/saloon) in Guttenberg, New jersey known as Jennie Shelp's Cottage (I hav a print of an old advertisement) which leads me to further believe the actual name was Schelpf which is consistent with both of Louisa's parents being born in Germany as reflected on the 1880 Census for them (both Shelf and Shelp would seem to be "Americanized" versions of Schelpf).

Louisa Schelpf

NAME: Shelf, Shelp, Shelpf but more likely Schelpf. See Gregg Sodini E-MAIL cited with her son.

7395. William Frost Carpenter

Descendants provided by Donald W. Blankman on 17 Sep 2013. dblank@comcast.net

--- 5th Generation ---
16. William Frost5 CARPENTER-45271 (1615).
BIRTH:
We first encounter William Frost Carpenter in the 1870 census (taken 1 June 1870) living in Oyster Bay, Queens County, New York with his parents William T. Carpenter and Sarah C. Frost. He was then listed aged 4/12ths, which would put his birth some time in February 1870. However, column 13 of the census provides that if the child was born within the year (1 June 1869 - 1 June 1870) the month was to be shown. For William, October is listed, so he was perhaps born in October 1869, but this information is in conflict with the 4 months old claim. a rost Genealogy say he was born 9 January 1870, which is probably more reliable than the census record. We next find William at age 10 and attending school in Oyster Bay in the 1880 census.
MARRIAGE:
The New York State Census for Brooklyn, Kings County, New York for 1892 shows our William F. Carpenter at age 22, employed as an electrician, living with his wife Margaret L. (Watt) Carpenter, age 21, and their two sons William R. Carpenter, age 3, and Clarence E. Carpenter, age 1. So, William and Margaret were married 29 June 1888, in Brooklyn, Kings County, New York. On 18 March 1894 Margaret gave birth to Harry Watt Carpenter, but again, the specific birth record has not been located.
MARRIAGE: Breakup
Between 1894 and 1900 the family broke up for some unknown reason. Perhaps domestic, health, financial or legal problems forced the family apart, and we find in the 1900 U.S. Census for Brooklyn, that the three boys were listed as inmates of the Home for Destitute Children, at 217 Sterling Place, in Brooklyn. The boys were listed as follows: Carpenter, William, born May 6, 1889, age 11; Carpenter, Clarence E., born October 28, 1891, age 8; and Carpenter, Harry W., born March 18, 1894, age 6. Note that William F. Carpenter named his sons after himself and his two younger brothers Harry and Clarence. The boys were not shown to have been brothers in the census, but numerous other records lead to that conclusion. The Brooklyn Industrial School Association and Home For Destitute Children at 215-225 Sterling Place in Brooklyn was established in 1854. One can see a photo of how it looked and a comprehensive story of its existence if one "Googles" The Home for Destitute Children, and reads the Wikipedia entry for the institution. One thing to note is that actual orphans were sent to an orphanage and not the "Home," which was reserved for children whose parents were unable to provide for them. The parent placing the children had to make application for the admission of the children, so if those records still exist, the "why" in the application could be ascertained.
SPOUSE:
Margaret L. Carpenter was listed in the 1900 Census living at 633 President Street, Brooklyn, Kings County, New York, age 28, born in May 1872 in New York, working as a stenographer, married, and had been for 11 years. The census also showed that Margaret had 4 children, three of whom were still living. She was living with her mother, Millicent Watt, age 68, a widow, born May 1832 in Ireland, the mother of 9 children, 7 of whom were still living. Also living with Margaret and her mother Millicent were: Isabella E. Watt, age 38, born December 1861 in Ireland, single; Lucy J. Watt, age 37, born August 1862 in Ireland, single; and James R. Watt, age 30, born January 1870 in New York, single. Isabella and Lucy were also employed as stenographers, and James as an electrician. Therefore, divorce was apparently not the proximate cause of the boys being placed in the "Home." ...
SPOUSE: re-marriage
The fact remains that by 1903 Margaret got her act together and married Walter Hicks and got her boys back from the" Home." In the 1910 census of Brooklyn, New York we find living in a multi-family home at 103 Quincy Street as enumeration family No. 386, Walter S. Hicks, age 56, manager at the gas company; Margaret L. Hicks, age 37, Walter's wife of 7 years; William R. Carpenter, step-son, age 20, and Harry W. Carpenter, step-son, age 16. Margaret lived on until 1932, ...
DEATH:
... but the fate of William F. Carpenter has yet to be discovered. He was born on 9 Jan 1870 at Oyster Bay, Long Island, New York, USA. He married Margaret (Maggie) L. WATT (1616), daughter of James R. WATT (1813) and Millicent KINKAID (1814), on 29 Jun 1888 at Certif#3200, Brooklyn, Kings, New York, USA.
An unsubstantiated record indicates that William F. Carpenter died in 1910.

Subject: New Carpenter Line tied to 2/2A. Providence Group
Dear John R. Carpenter,

I have provided my twin great-grandnephews with a rather comprehensive genealogy of their ancestry. By the time they are adults and able to appreciate the effort I expended on their behalf, I will have long since finished my annual trips around the sun, but they will have my product by which they can remember that I once existed.
...
For whatever it may be worth, I produced from my database an Ahnentafel between the William Carpenter, who was the progenitor of the Providence Carpenters and my great-grandnephew River Holden Carpenter, born 17 March 2008 in California, and I attach it hereto for your information. If it will aid in the application for the free tests, that's great. If not, then perhaps it may be of interest to others trying to complete their lines in this branch.
Naturally, I am available to answer any questions anyone may have about the information I have submitted.
Sincerely,
Donald W. Blankman
Genealogist

Eugene E. Carpenter, who is engaged as contractor and builder of Port Washington,L.I. ,N.Y., was born at Searingtown, a town of North Hempstead, L.I.,NY. His father, James Smith Carpenter, was also a builder, moved to Manhasset when Eugene was a lad of some 12 years and there the latter lived until his marriage. When sixteen years of age our subject began work with his father, under whose able instruction he learned his trade. He was married in 1872 to Miss Sarah Jane Fearon. Her parents were still living, making their home in Brooklyn, in which city Mrs. Carpenter was educated. While still an apprentice, Eugene E. assisted his father in building the house which he moved into soon after his marriage. It was while at work on this dwelling that he became acquainted with his future wife. Their union has been blessed by the birth of three children, Eugene, Jr; William and Elsie.. The elder son is also following the carpenter's trade, which he learned with his father. William is assisting his father in his business. In politics our subject is a strong supported of Republican principles and doctrines and in 1872 cast his first Presidential ballot for Grant. He was elected trustee of the Jones poor fund, but refused to serve in this capacity. He is a charter member of Protection Engine Co. #1, of which he is foreman. Socially, he is an active worker in Worth Lodge # 210, F. & A.M. which meets in the German Masonic Temple in New York City.

-Dear Ancestor-
Your tombstone stands among the rest;
neglected and alone
The name and date are chiseled out on polished, marbled stone
It reaches out to all who care
It is too late to mourn
You did not know that I'd exist
You died and I was born.
Yet each of us are cells of you in flesh, in blood, in bone.
Our blood contracts and beats a pulse entirely not our own.
Dear Ancestor, the place you filled
one hundred years ago Spreads out among the ones you left who would have loved you so.
I wonder if you lived and loved,
I wonder if you knew
That someday I would find this spot, and come to visit you.

William N. Carpenter

Really need the 2 children cited in FaG.

Unknown ancestry

William N. Carpenter was born ca 1835/36 in Yancey Co, NC in the area that later became Mitchell County (in 1861) and finally Avery County (in 1911).

William was apparently with his parents for the 1840 census, and was with them in 1850.

William married Mary Wise on 1 Apr 1862 in Mitchell Co, NC. However, this date seems to contradict the fact that they already appeared to be married, and together on the 1860 census. It is possible that he was married to another woman named Mary, prior to Mary Wise. She was listed as "Mrs" on the marriage record, possibly indicating she was widowed from a Mr. Wise.

There was a curious marriage record in Burke County in 1860. On 6 Mar 1860, a "William Carpenter" obtained a marriage bond in Burke County to marry "Lousind Stamy". That is probably a badly misspelled "Lucinda", or possibly "Louisa". If her name was also "Mary", then that may be who is with William on the 1860 census. They did appear to be newlyweds, and to add to this, William's sister Sophia Carpenter married George Stamey in 1859 Yancey County. This could be a case of two siblings marrying two other siblings.

Regarding the Stamy / Stamey family, there were none in Yancey County in 1850, but the closest was in neighboring Caldwell County and several in neighboring Burke. None of those had a daughter "Mary" or "Lucinda" or anything close. Nor a son George. The next nearest ones were in Lincoln and Haywood County. None of those matched up either.

William and Mary were listed on the 1860 census in Yancey County, next to his parents.

CARPENTER WILLIAM 23 M W FARMER NC 1836/1837
CARPENTER MARY 17 F W NC 1842/1843
Assuming that "Mary" of 1860 is a different person than "Mrs. Mary Wise" who William married in 1862, then that means the first Mary died before 1862.

Mary Wise Carpenter also apparently died in the 1860's in Mitchell County. I'm not at all sure if I have the spouses sorted out properly or not, so keep that in mind. One of the Mary's (assuming they are different people) was the mother of Thomas Carpenter, born ca 1862.

William was back home with his parents for the 1870 census. He had his young son Thomas living with him.

William apparently married his cousin Margaret Elizabeth Carpenter in the 1870/73 timeframe. She was a child of Samuel Carpenter. She was listed on the 1870 census with two children, and it seems like she was a widow, or perhaps single mother, since her kids were listed as "Carpenter" in 1870.

Their suggestion:

Edward McCoy Carpenter is burried at Big Meadows Cemetery, he is not at Pisgah United Methodist Church Cemetery. I left a Pansey, for his wife was Pansey Lee Carpenter. Can we fix this?

DAVID BURTON CARPENTER
August 22, 1940 – April 5, 2016

DAVID BURTON CARPENTER
David Burton Carpenter of Missouri City, a chemical engineer and educator who held three patents, died April 5 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS). He was 75.

Carpenter earned both bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees during his five years at Rice University and a master's of business administration from Marshall University in Huntington, W.Va.

A native of Shawnee, Okla., Carpenter was his high school salutatorian at John Marshall High School in Oklahoma City and won the Gaylord scholarship in chemistry and math.

Carpenter was awarded three patents while working in research and development for Ashland Oil Co. in Kentucky – two for making naphthalene from diesel fuel, and one for making activated carbon from two refinery waste products.

He later worked as assistant manager for Ashland's plant in Great Meadows, NJ, and as operations manager for Calgon Corp. in Ashland, Ky.

Wanting to return to Texas, Carpenter accepted a position in commercial development for Merichem Co. in Missouri City. He later started a custom manufacturing pilot plant for the scale-up and commercialization of products and processes. He called it Sheith, a combination of his children's names. The startup was caught by the oil collapse of the early 1980s, and it shut down in 1985.

Carpenter then was hired as operations manager by South Hampton Refining, where he oversaw several capital expansion projects before going to work for Pennzoil as a research and development engineer. He later worked for Texmark Chemical as plant manager and R&D manager.

After retirement, Carpenter worked as an engineering consultant and taught process engineering as an adjunct professor at Alvin Community College. He tutored students in physical science and mathematics.

He was active in the Episcopal Church, serving on the vestries of three churches, including positions as senior warden and junior warden. He chaired finance committees and served as project manager for building projects at various churches.

Carpenter served as elections clerk and election judge for several local and national elections, and worked for H&R Block, helping citizens file their taxes. He was an avid genealogist.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia Howell Carpenter; two children, Sherry Schreck of Missouri City and Keith Carpenter of Milwaukee, Wis.; and three grandchildren, Charlie Schreck of Oklahoma City, Laura Schreck of Houston and Allie Carpenter of Milwaukee, Wis. His sister, Sally Carpenter Hale, lives in Doylestown, Pa.

The family asks that donations be made to the ALS Association or the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany Book of Remembrance.

Nancy Ellen Oberg

Nancy Ellen Oberg Carpenter
Birth: 4 Jul 1928 Flushing, Queens County, New York, USA
Death: 17 Jun 2020 (aged 91)
Burial: Nassau Knolls Cemetery, Port Washington, Nassau County, New York, USA
Bio:
Born on the 4th of July, 1928, Nancy passed away late in the day on June 17, 2020, just a few weeks shy of her 92nd birthday. Born in Flushing, she moved with her family to Port Washington when she was about twelve years old. At the age of 18 she married a local boy, Charles (a/k/a Chip) Carpenter when the young sailor returned from three theatres in the Mediterranean Sea and Pacific Ocean during WWII. He predeceased her in 2007. She was the last survivor of her nuclear family of five sisters and one brother. Her brother, Carl, predeceased her in November of last year.

Nancy and Chip lived in Port Washington for their entire married life, raising four children. She is survived by those children: Rebecca Byrne (the late Daniel), Nancy Venetos (George), Thomas Carpenter (Barbara) and Amelia Fitzmaurice (Michael); eleven grandchildren: Daniel, Barbara (Mrs. Michael McGovern), Matthew and James Byrne, Jason Carpenter and Ezra Venetos, Nicole (Mrs. James McCain), Timothy Carpenter, and Conor, Neil and Rebecca Fitzmaurice, as well as nine great-grandchildren and a slew of nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by grandson, Lorca Venetos.

After her husband's death she moved to East Northport where she resided for ten years, following which she moved to Denver, Colorado to be near her youngest child, Amy, and where she continued to live independently until about a week before her death from pneumonia.

A quiet and shy youngster, Nancy was a pleasantly gregarious personality in her later years, often being scolded for speaking her mind. But those scoldings didn't bother her. She knew that she'd lived a long life and had seen and experienced more than most. She'd lived through the depression of the 1930s, the war years in the 1940s, JFK's assassination, the Feminist and Civil Rights Movements, the Vietnam War, the moon landing, the dawn of a new century, the 911 terrorist attack, Covid-19 and so much more. She'd known American life under fifteen presidents and all that goes along with the changes in party politics. As a result, she was a self-appointed political pundit. She was never without a story about people and places from her experiences. She was an avid reader, well known at the public libraries she visited weekly. She loved music, had an engaging voice, and always had a song in her heart.

To the end she was lucid and talkative. She and her stories will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Interment will be later in the year at Nassau Knolls Cemetery.

Thanks so much, John.
Yes this is the correct Grace Carpenter Merritt. She died of TB at age ~32. Her son Raymond Merritt He. was married twice and had many children with his second wife, Brenda. Grace's second son, Gilbert, married several times but had no surviving children. The family seemed to vanish after Grace died. There were also some strange rumors about how Gilbert died in Las Vegas. There don't seem to be any surviving relatives to fill in the blanks.
Thanks again. Hour help is much appreciated.

Brenda Kay White

GRAVE:
Brenda Kay White Merritt
Birth: 26 Jul 1941 Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, USA
Death: 8 Nov 2017 (aged 76) Dallas County, Texas, USA
Burial: Sullivan CemeteryHunt County, Texas, USA
Memorial #: 185167765
Bio:
Brenda Kay (White) Grandstaff Merritt, 76, passed away Wednesday, November 8, 2017, at her home. Burial will be at Sullivan Cemetery.

Brenda Kay "Mimi" was born in Dallas, Texas, to William Elmer and Annie Pearl Holliday White. Mimi was an only child and vowed never to have only one child herself. She married William "Bill" Grandstaff in 1959 and they had three daughters; after their divorce, she met and married Raymond Merritt in 1970 and they had three boys and two girls.

Brenda was a very content woman and found happiness in times of plenty and of want, she worked very hard and provided for her family. She lived a modest life without the many luxuries most of us take for granted. Brenda raised eight children in a three bedroom, one bath home without air conditioning, dishwasher, or clothes dryer in the Texas heat.

She worked nearly two decades for the Edwin Jones Company; Ed and Marsha quickly became cherished friends. The family was always very important to her and frequent family gatherings were a priority. She even hosted "Mimi Weekend" once a month for years to bring all of her grandchildren together for a sleepover; an event everyone looked forward to, especially her children!

Mimi was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Merritt in 1994; her dad, William Elmer in 1966; and her mother Annie in 1997.

Survivors include her daughters: Cathy Reynolds and husband, Randy, of Yukon, OK, Donna Shell, of Royse City, Sandy Cook and her husband, Tommy, of Rockwall, Becky Carswell and her husband, John, of Dallas, and Rachel Merritt, of Dallas; sons: Mark Merritt, of Allen, Steven Merritt and wife, Melissa, of Irving, and Joel Merritt and wife, Casey, of Rowlett; grandchildren: Ashley Graham, Brandi Shell, Christian Reynolds, Stefani (JJ) Johnson, Katie and Megan Cook, Caleb, Duncan, and Ben Merritt, Alexis, Serra, Ryan, Emily, and Connor Merritt, and Anthony Merritt; great-grandchildren, Aiden and Teagan Graham, and Olivia Johnson; other relatives and many friends. SELLMAN AUTO, INCORPORATED v. McCowan
Annotate this Case
513 P.2d 1228 (1973)
SELLMAN AUTO, INCORPORATED, a Nevada corporation, Appellant, v. Jerry L. McCOWAN AND Clara McCowan, Respondents.
No. 6977.
Supreme Court of Nevada.
September 10, 1973.
*1229 Robert K. Dorsey, Las Vegas, for appellant.
Robert L. Gifford, Las Vegas, for respondents.
MOWBRAY, Justice:
Sellman Auto, Incorporated, commenced this action on July 28, 1969, for the recovery of damages resulting from an alleged default by defendants-respondents, the McCowans, on the purchase of a new Chrysler automobile. The McCowans filed a counterclaim for breach of warranty, and they sought recovery of their trade-in allowance and the payments they had made to Sellman under the conditional sales contract. The district judge ordered that Sellman take nothing by its complaint and the McCowans recover only the amount of their trade-in allowance, disallowing the payments they had made under the sales contract. Sellman has appealed, and the McCowans have responded with a cross-appeal.

CHILDREN: Duplication of children. Her first two children may have been adopted by Paul T. Mowrey. They are listed both ways for now.

Rev. Jerome R. S. Mowrey

NAME: Rev. Jerome R.S. /Mowrey/. Name sometimes spelled as "Mowery." Taken from the Mowrey book, page 181, Vol. III. There is some confusion as who is the wife of Jerome, and her parents. Refer to the notes section for Sarah Jane Grady, for explainations.
Jerome R. S. Mowrey, who married Malinda Carpenter, eldest daughter of Elijah and Sarah Jane (Grady) Carpenter, is probably the best known of this family- He supposedly served in both the Union and Confederate Armies at one time or another during the Civil War and escaped from Andersonville near the end of the war. or As a Seventh Day Adventist Minister, he travelled back and forth between southern Ohio and the Shenandoah Valley preaching the gospel, healing the sick and afflicted and establishing churches. He once burst into a Baptist Church service preaching Revelations, was arrested for disturbing a public meeting and later successfully defended himself by serving as his own attorney at his subsequent trial. His power of persuasion was so great that the jury deliberated less than half an hour before returning a unanimous verdict to acquit him of all charges.

12383. Willie L. Bridwell

The death of Willie L. Bridwell on 4 January 1997 occasioned a surprise. Willie had appeared nearly destitute in his old age, living in a delapidated old house, getting his sustenance from "Meals on Wheels" and having his property taxes paid by a kindly neighbor. Money was found- a lot of money- nearly 60 thousand in cash- stashed away in various places in his house. An effort was made to locate his next-of-kin. He seemed to have none! A niece, Mary Jo (Bridwell) McCrosky, was finally discovered in Ravenswood, West Virginia. She readily accepted the windfall but declared that she had honestly never even heard of the man.

From Eric Jamieson ejam@shaw.ca:I am living in North Vancouver, Canada, and researching the 1958 collapse the Second Narrows Bridge (now called the Ironworkers Memorial Second Narrows Crossing) in which 19 men were killed. Otmer Carpenter, born in West Virginia, was the superintendent on the bridge (he had nothing to do with its collapse). He was an interesting man and was nicknamed "High" for his love of heights. He was therefore known as High Carpenter.According to another engineer on the bridge, Otmer was from West Virginia and he worked all over the U.S. building bridges for various companies. As well, he worked in British Columbia for Dominion Bridge. I know he was about 80 in 1963, which would place his birth around the same date as your Otmer Carpenter, and was still working as a superintendent; then, on the Port Mann Bridge just outside of Vancouver. He then returned to the U.S. and had a home in South Los Angeles. He was disfigured quite badly from an electrical accident that occurred on a dam somewhere in the U.S. prior to his B.C. work experience. That's about all I know, but as he was in such demand as a super, and was well liked by the men.1920 Multnomah, Portland Co, OregonCarpenter, Otmer C, lodger, male, white, age 30, marriedWWI Civilian Draft Registrations Recordabout Otmer C. MILITARY: 1917-1918
Served in F Company, 28th Infantry Regiment, 1st Infantry Division. Died of Wounds 29 May 1918.

1st Infantry Division - "Big Red One" - World War 1 - 1918
Four infantry regiments (16th, 18th, 26th and 28th) and three artillery regiments (5th, 6th and 7th) were ordered from the Mexican border in Texas to Hoboken, NJ, to board transports for France. On June 8, 1917, Brigadier General William Sibert assumed command of them as the "First Expeditionary Division." Organized as a "square" division of more than 28,000 men, the First Division was twice the size of either the Allied or German divisions on the Western Front.

The First Division won the first American victory in World War I at the Battle of Cantigny. Cantigny is a small village north of Paris, in the Picardy region of France. Held by the German Army, Cantigny formed a dangerous salient in the Allied lines. On May 28, 1918, the First Division attacked and defeated the German forces in the village and held it against repeated German counterattacks, despite suffering more than 1,000 casualties. The success raised the Allies' morale, convinced the British and French that the Americans were capable of operating in independent fighting units, and disproved German propaganda about American incapacity.

28th Infantry Regiment - "Lions of Cantigny"
Since the establishment of the United States Army in 1775, three regiments have held the designation 28th Infantry Regiment. ... The third version of the 28th Infantry Regiment is the one that has the permanent designation and history, and is the one this article is about. ...
The regiment first saw combat service from December 1901 to January 1904 during the Philippine–American War where the regiment was heavily involved in counter-guerrilla operations. Upon returning to the U.S. the Regiment relieved the 14th Infantry at Fort Snelling. During the years 1906–1908, the regiment, minus one battalion, performed guard and police duty as part of the United States Cuban Occupation force.

In 1913, the 28th Infantry was ordered to Texas to assist in guarding the Mexican border against raids by Pancho Villa. Following the entry of the US into World War I, the regiment was assigned on 8 June 1917 to the First Expeditionary Division which later became the 1st Division.
On 29 June 1917, the men of Company K became the first American combat unit to set foot on European soil at Saint-Nazaire, France.
During the Battle of Cantigny, the 28th attacked the Germans and earned the moniker; "The Black Lions of Catigny."
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/28th_Infantry_Regiment_(United_States)

By April 1918, the Germans had pushed to within 40 miles of Paris. In reaction to this thrust, the Big Red One moved into the Picardy Sector to bolster the exhausted French First Army. To the Division's front lay the small village of Cantigny, situated on the high ground overlooking a forested countryside. It was the 28th Infantry, who attacked the town, and within 45 minutes captured it along with 250 German soldiers, thus earning the special designation "Lions of Cantigny" for the regiment. The first American victory of the war was a First Division victory.

DEATH:
PFC Ralph Carpenter died 29 May 1918 at a US Army Field Hospital near Cantigny, Somme, Hauts-de-France, France.
His death was DUE TO WOUNDS (DW) received on 28 May 1918.

The Battle of Cantigny, fought May 28, 1918 was the first major American battle and offensive of World War I. The U.S. 1st Division, the most experienced of the five American divisions then in France and in reserve for the French Army near the village of Cantigny, was selected for the attack.

At 06:45 [H Hour] on May 28, 1918, American soldiers of the 28th Infantry Regiment left their jump-off trenches following an hour-long artillery preparation. Part of the preparation was counter-battery fire directed at German artillery positions. A rolling barrage, advancing 100 meters every two minutes, was calculated to give the attacking troops time to keep up with it.

The 28th Infantry Regiment (Colonel Hansen Ely, commanding) plus two companies of the 18th Infantry Regiment, three machine-gun companies and a company of engineers (3,564 men), captured Cantigny from units of the German Eighteenth Army. The village was situated on high ground surrounded by woods, making it an ideal observation post for German artillery.

Battle
In 1923, The American Battle Monuments Commission (ABMC) erected 25 battle monuments, including one in the village of Cantigny that was dedicated on August 9, 1937.[7] At the unveiling of this monument, a speech was given (at the invitation of General John J. Pershing) by Col. Robert R. McCormick, who had commanded the 1st Battalion of the 5th Field Artillery Regiment at the battle. On one side of the memorial appears the inscription:

ERECTED BY THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO COMMEMORATE THE FIRST ATTACK BY AN AMERICAN DIVISION IN THE WORLD WAR.
On another side of the memorial appears the inscription:

THE FIRST DIVISION UNITED STATES ARMY OPERATING UNDER THE X FRENCH CORPS CAPTURED THE TOWN OF CANTIGNY ON MAY 28 1918 AND HELD IT AGAINST NUMEROUS COUNTERATTACKS.
French translations of these inscriptions appear on the opposite sides of the monument.

NOTE: While the images of the dead are generally readable there are portions unreadable. The details of the 28th Infantry Regiment dead are on portions of three plaques of which one is partly unreadable.
COMMENT:
Inscription. The First Division A.E.F. captured the town on the morning of May 28, 1918.
Killed 199 <----- Those listed Killed in Action (KIA)
Wounded 867 <---- Those wounded but those who may have later died may not be on the rostor of the dead. It is often a question of when they died and which report they went on.

First Division
A First Division Monument located along the road ½ mile southeast of Cantigny is one of five erected by the First Division itself in 1919. The names of the dead in the vicinity of Cantigny are engraved on the bronze plates. The monument is like a small concrete shaft, surmounted by a carved eagle of stone.

Black Lions
On May 28, 2008, the 90th anniversary of the Battle of Cantigny, the McCormick Foundation and the Association of the 28th Infantry Regiment dedicated the statue "The Lion of Cantigny," an original bronze work by Stephen Spears depicting a doughboy of the regiment advancing through the village. The 28th Infantry was the assault regiment in the First Division's attack, the first major US battle of World War I. The regimental coat of arms is based on the lions in the heraldic arms of Picardy, where Cantigny is; the regiment's nickname is Black Lions.

NOTE:
The American War dead were buried near the village of Cantigny in a temporary cemetery. Some families requested their son's remains be returned to the USA for burial in family plots. This was done in the early 1920s at a reduced cost for the family. PFC Ralph Carpenter's body was one of these returned.

TWO-CAR CRASH TAKES LIFE OF MRS. CARPENTER
Mrs. W. H. (Pauline) Carpenter died at 2:15 yesterday in James Archer Smith Hospital of injuries suffered in a two-car collision late Wednesday afternoon at the intersection of Krome Rd. and Biscayne Dr. Arrangements are being made by Branam Funeral Home.
Mrs. Carpenter, who was alone in her car, was on her way home from the hospital where she was a nurse. Not believed seriously hurt, she took a turn for the worse at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. Police Sergeant John Arrant went to Miami for blood for a transfu-sion, but she failed to rally.
Mrs. Carpenter leaves her hus-band and a daughter Patricia Ann, 15, who make their home on Old Dixie Highway; her mother, Mrs. Lena Verostek of Ridgeway, Pa., three brothers and three sisters.
Born Pauline Elizabeth Verostek 41 years ago in Ridgeway, she trained in nursing at St. Vincent's Hospital in Erie, Pa. It was there that she met her husband who was hospitalized after an auto-mobile accident.
After their mar-riage, they lived in Akron where she nursed at City Hospital. The family came here seven years ago to make their home.
Mrs. Carpenter numbered her friends by the hundreds, many of whom were her patients. Rosary services will be held at Branam Funeral Home Sunday at 8 p.m. and funeral services will take place at 9 a.m. Monday at Cunt! Heart Catholic Church, of which Mrs. Carpenter was a mem-ber.
Rev. Fr. M. F. Mullaly will officiate. Interment will follow in Palm Cemetary, Naranja. R. Jim St. Germain of Miami, driver of the other car, escaped with negligible injuries but Mrs. Germaine is reported to be in a serious condition at the hospital.

William Carpenter was born ca 1804/05 in Burke (later Yancey, later Mitchell, now Avery) Co, NC. I don't know who he was named after, possibly after his Uncle William Davis.
William Carpenter is a proven son of Jacob Carpenter, as named in his Will of 1849.
William Carpenter married Elizabeth Wilson in 1831 in Burke (later Yancey) Co ,NC. See his own page for additional information on them. SEE:

[Commentary] [Children] [Researcher List] [Register Report] [A Note about sources] [How to contact me] [Home]

I (Marty Grant) am a 4th Great Grand nephew of William Carpenter.

William Carpenter was born ca 1804/05 in Burke County, NC in the Three Mile Creek area. This area became Yancey County in 1833, and Mitchell County in 1861, and finally, Avery County in 1911. William is a son of Jacob and Margaret Carpenter. William may have been named after his Uncle William Davis.

William was apparently home with his parents for the 1810, 1820 and 1830 census in Burke County.

William Carpenter married Elizabeth Wilson on 15 Nov 1831 in Burke (later Yancey) Co, NC. I'm not sure where I got this marriage date. I'm sure it was shared by another researcher, but I didn't document it for some reason. I don't know what proof there is that Elizabeth was a Wilson, but many researchers list her that way, and as a child of William Wilson and wife Elizabeth ---. I have not attempted to prove her parents. However, Jacob Carpenter reported the death of "Elizabeth Wilison" age 82 on Oct 20, 1842. He stated she was his grandmother, and "Wm Wilison" age 86 on July 30 1847 as his grandfather. He was but a small child when they died, and undoubtedly wrote this much later, but it seems likely he would have gotten their names right, and death dates right, though possibly not their ages.

Regarding the Wilson family, they were quite numerous in old Burke and Yancey County. In 1790, there was Edward, Ezekiel, George, Ginral (General?), Greenberry, 106-110, James, James, James, John, John, John, John Jr, Michal, Samuel, Thomas, and William. This is quite a few there early on. Though only one William Wilson was listed. This might be too early for this to be Elizabeth's father, assuming the information about her father being named William is correct.

In 1800 Burke, the Wilsons were just as numerous, including William Wilson (1774/84), with wife (1755/74), 2 daughters 10-15 (1784/90), and 1 son under 10 (1790/1800).

In 1810 Burke, there were still quite a few Wilson families (and "Willson") in Burke County, including one William Willson. This William was born ca 1765/84, and wife in the younger category (1784/94). He had three girls under 10, (1800/10), which could include daughter Elizabeth (c1803), if this is her family.

In 1820 Burke, there were again several Wilson families, including three Williams. The first, William (1794/1804) seem to be a newlywed, with a wife his same age, and no children. He did seem to be in the Three Mile Creek area. The next one, William (1775/94) had a large family, and seem to be in the area that later became McDowell County. He had one daughter, age 10-15 (1804/10), which doesn't quite fit for Elizabeth (c1803), but could be anyway. The last one was listed as William Wilson Esq (Esquire, probably meaning he was a Justice of the Peace, or a Constable). He was born 1775/94, and had no apparent wife, unless she was the oldest of three girls, one under 10 (1810/20), one 10-15 (1804/10) and one 16-25 (1794/1804). My belief, is that this oldest girl was our Elizabeth Wilson (c1803), and that this William's wife must have died between 1810 and 1820. This all depends on William actually being Elizabeth's father, for which I have no proof.

In 1830 Burke, there were numerous Wilson families still, including two Williams. The first one was born ca 1780/90, with wife, or mother (1760/70) with him. He had no other females in his household, so this doesn't seem to be ours. The other William, listed as William "Sr" was obviously the same one from 1820 who appeared to be widowed then. In 1830 he was age 60-69, born ca 1760/70, with one female age 15-19 (1810/15), and one male the same age.

The above shows that although this elder William Wilson (1760/70) did have a daughter, approximately Elizabeth's age (c1803), she was not still with him in 1830. Since she didn't marry William Carpenter until 1831, this is suspicious. Though at her age, she certainly could have been residing with a married sibling somewhere. Was she not the daughter of "William and Elizabeth Wilson" as other researchers show? "Uncle Jake" Carpenter stated in his Diary that Elizabeth Wilson died 1842, and she was his grandmother, and that William Wilson died in 1847 and was his grandfather. However, it has been difficult to reconcile this with census records. Though it certainly can be correct.

In 1840 Yancey, there were four William Wilson's listed, including William Sr age 50-59 (c1780/90) wife wife the same age, and a William (1800/10), and a William (1790/1800) and a William A. Wilson (1810/20). Of these, only William Sr even comes close in age to be the father of Elizabeth. Of course, Elizabeth was married by 1840, so no longer with her parents.

Checking all other Wilsons in 1830 Burke, I find only a couple with a girl Elizabeth's age. She would have still been single, presumably at home, and been approximately 27 years old, so in the 20-29 age group. James Wilson (c1760/70) had one apparent daughter this age. Robert Wilson (1780/90) had one apparent daughter this age. Thomas Wilson (1790/1800) had someone her age, but it was probably his own wife instead. John Wilson (1790/1800) had someone her age, but probably his own spouse. Robert Wilson (1790/1800) had someone her age, but probably his own spouse. Joseph Wilson (1790/1800) had someone her age, but probably his own spouse. Jesse Wilson Sr (1780/90) had an apparent daughter her age with him. Samuel Wilson (1800/10) had someone her age, but probably his own spouse. James Wilson (1810/15) had someone her age, but probably his own spouse.

Disregarding other evidence, the 1830 census only shows James Wilson (1760/70), Robert Wilson (1780/90), and Jesse Wilson Sr (1780/90) as prime candidates to be Elizabeth's father. This ignores the fact that Elizabeth could easily have been away from home then.

Anyway, I'll leave Elizabeth as a child of William (d 1847) and Elizabeth (d 1842) until other evidence confirms, or refutes this. Now back to the Carpenter family study.

On 28 Dec 1836, William Carpenter received a State land grant for 50 acres in Yancey County on North East side of Doe Hill adjoining Jacob Carpenter (his father) and William C. Carpenter (himself? Or someone else?). (Yancey Co, NC Deed Book 1 page 196 from "Index and Abstract of Deeds of Yancey Co., NC Deed Book 1" by Sally Williams, 1985).

William Carpenter was listed on the 1840 census in Yancey County not too far from his brother David and not too far from his father Jacob.

William Carpenter was listed on the 1840 tax list in Yancey County in Captain Vance's Company. He was taxed for 250 acres, valued at $125, and he had one white poll (himself), and his tax was $2.12 1/2. (Toe Valley Genealogical Society Newsletter, Volume 5, Number 8, October 1993, 1840 Yancey County Tax List, Capt Vance's Company by Kathy Sullivan)

William's 250 acres (as of 1840) is not all accounted for. I found a 50 acre land grant to him in 1836, but no other records (so far). That leaves 200 more acres yet unaccounted for.

William Carpenter was listed on the 1841 tax list in Yancey County in Captain Swan's Company. He was taxed for 250 acres (same as in 1840), valued at $150, and he had one white poll (himself). (Toe Valley Genealogical Society Newsletter, Volume 5, Number 9, November 1993, 1841 Yancey County Tax List, Capt Swan's Company by Kathy Sullivan)

In the Spring 1848 term of Yancey County Court, the Valuations of Yancey County lands were all reduced by 33 1/3 cent per acre. William Carpenter was listed in North Toe River District with his land of $300 reduced to $200. (Toe Valley Genealogical Society Newsletter, Volume 2, Number 6, August 1990, "Yancey County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions Minutes to Spring Term 1848" extracted by Rhonda Gunter)

William was named as a son in his father Jacob's Will of 8 Sep 1849 in Yancey County.

For the 1850 census, William and family were listed just three houses from his parents, and near several siblings.

William Carpenter died in Mitchell County on 15 Nov 1881. His son Jacob wrote of his death in his "Anthology of Death":

"William Carpenter age 76 dide nov 15 1881. Wars fine honter, cil bare and wolves by 100 der by 100."

Elizabeth Wilson Carpenter died in Mitchell County on 21 Jul 1886. For some reason, her son Jacob didn't mention her death.

I'm not sure where William and Elizabeth are buried.

COMMENT:
Many genelogies has Elizabeth Keener (Kier) as a spouse also. And children have minimal name similarities and different birth years. And unless Levi was into multiple big families, one is wrong. My guess is a merge issue with two Levi Carpenters. But, who is who is unknown. Need research and maybe Y-DNA testing to figure this out. JRC

Elizabeth Keener

Keener once recorded as Kier?

6774. Elizabeth Carpenter

http://www.martygrant.com/genealogy/carpenter/carpenter-jacob-yancey.htm
Elizabeth Carpenter was born ca 1820/21 in Burke (later Yancey, later Mitchell, now Avery) Co, NC. I suspect she was named after her grandmother, Elizabeth Miller Carpenter.
Elizabeth was apparently home with her parents for the 1830 census in Burke Co, NC.
Elizabeth Carpenter married Martin D. Wiseman ca 1838 in Yancey Co, NC. Martin was born ca 1818 in Burke County. Other researchers show him as a child of Bedford Wiseman (1799) and Mary Jennings. And Bedford as a child of William Wiseman (1739-1830) and Lydia Bedford.
Regarding the early Wiseman family, I found a Thomas and William Wiseman listed in Burke on the 1790 census.
In 1800 Burke, there were several Wisemans listed, including two William's and a Martin Wiseman (probably the namesake of our Martin D. Wiseman). Neither William seemed the same age as William (1739), but only one of the Williams had a son under 10 (born 1790/1800, which could be Bedford Wiseman (1799). Martin Wiseman had two sons that age.
In 1810 Burke, there were several Wiseman listings, including apparent widow Ann Wiseman, just three houses from Jacob Carpenter, and also William Sr (bef 1765) on the next page. He had one son age 10-15, born ca 1794/1800, so that must be Bedford (1799). There was another William Wiseman (1765/84) several pages away.
In 1820 Burke, Bedford Wiseman was listed, with 2 boys under 10, born ca 1810/20, one of which was son Martin D. Wiseman. Bedford's supposed father, William Wiseman was several pages away, but two houses from Jacob Carpenter. These were the only two Wiseman listings in Burke in 1820.
In 1830 Burke, Bedford Wiseman was listed in the Three Mile Creek area. A few houses away was Alexander Wiseman, a possible sibling of his. Bedford had two boys age 10-15, born ca 1815/20 with him, one of which was probably son Martin D. Wiseman. Bedford and Alexander were the only Wiseman's listed in 1830 Burke.
Yancey County was formed in 1833 from Burke, including where the Carpenter and Wiseman families lived.
Martin Wiseman was listed on the 1840 census in Yancey Co, NC. They were next to Elizabeth's brother Samuel Carpenter. Other Wisemans listed in 1840 included Josiah, Alexander, William, Bedford (Martin's father, just a few houses from him) and "Center" Wiseman.
1840 census analysis (based on available evidence): (Explanation of this census <../reference/1840.htm>)
1840 Yancey County, NC pg 275 Martin D. Wiseman 0000100000000-0001000000000
Analysis:
1 Male(s) 20-29 (1810-1820) Martin D. WISEMAN (1817/18) s/o Bedford
1 Female(s) 15-19 (1820-1825) Elizabeth CARPENTER Wiseman (1810/21) wife
On 8 Sep 1849, Elizabeth's father made his Will in Yancey County. He named her among his daughters as "Elizabeth Wiseman".
Martin and Elizabeth were listed on the 1850 census in Yancey County. They weren't listed near any of Elizabeth's family, but probably not too far from them. There were numerous other Wisemans in 1850 Yancey County as well, including Martin's parents Bedford and Mary Wiseman. Their next door neighbors were Benjamin Gilbert <../gilbert/gilbert-wilson-yancey.htm> and Jesse Blalock. There were two laborers residing with the Wisemans, a James Taylor, 36, and William Gaddy, 30.

6775. Nancy Emaline Carpenter

http://www.martygrant.com/genealogy/carpenter/carpenter-jacob-yancey.htm
Nancy E. Carpenter was born ca 1821/22 in Burke (later Yancey, later Mitchell, now Avery) Co, NC. I don't know who she might have been named after, if anyone.
Nancy was apparently home with her parents for the 1830 census in Burke County.
Nancy married a Mr. Franklin per her father's Will (1849). I found two Nancy Franklin's in the 1850 census, one born ca 1827 married to James M. Franklin. They were listed next to David Carpenter, so at first I assumed this was Nancy Carpenter. However, other researchers tell me that Nancy Carpenter married John S. Franklin and not James M. Franklin, so this must be a different Nancy. However, I've not seen proof either way, but certain evidence (and other researchers) make Nancy, wife of John, seem the more likely one.
Nancy married John Sewell Franklin before 1839 in Yancey Co, NC. John was born ca 1818. I don't know who his parents were.
Concerning the Franklin family, I found a John Franklin Sr and Jr in 1790 Burke County.
In 1800 Burke, there was John Franklin (bef 1755), John (1755/74), Jonathan (1755/74) and Moses Franklin (1755/74).
In 1810 Burke, there was John (bef 1765), Jonathan (1765/84), John Sr (bef 1765) all next to each other, and near them was Moses Franklin (1765/84). Several pages away was another John (bef 1765), and a few more pages away was Samuel (1765/84).
In 1820 Burke, there were several still, including John (bef 1775) and Samuel (1775/94) near each other; both of whom each had 2 sons under 10, born ca 1810/20, which could be John Sewell Franklin (c1818). Several pages away was apparent widow Phebe Franklin (bef 1775); several more pages away was David Franklin (1794/1804), and on the next page was Lewis Franklin (bef 1775).
Of all those in 1820, only three had sons under 10 (born ca 1810/20), and they were John, Samuel and Lewis. One of those may be John Sewell Franklin's father.
In 1830 Burke, there were several Franklins again. I'll only list those that had a male child about John Sewell Franklins age. Samuel Franklin (1770/80) had one son age 10-15, or born ca 1815/20. John Franklin (1760/70) had two sons in that age group. David Franklin (1800/10) had one son that age.
In 1833, Yancey County was formed from Burke, including where the Carpenters and several of the Franklin families resided, though several Franklin families were still within Burke County for the 1840 census. I've ignored them for the time being.
In 1840 Yancey, there was John (Sewell) Franklin next door to his father-in-law Jacob Carpenter. Samuel Franklin (1770/80) was near by. That may make him the prime candidate for John's father. However, Samuel, in 1840, had an apparent son age 20-29 with him, and in 1830 only had one child in the corresponding age group (10-15), which if John, should be gone by 1840.

1 Female(s) 20-29 (1810-1820) Nancy E. CARPENTER Franklin (1821/22) wife John Franklin was listed on the 1840 tax list in Yancey County in Captain Vance's Company. He was taxed for 25 acres, valued at $12, and he had one white poll (himself), and his tax was $1.56. (Toe Valley Genealogical Society Newsletter, Volume 5, Number 8, October 1993, 1840 Yancey County Tax List, Capt Vance's Company by Kathy Sullivan)

"Nancy Franklin" was named in Jacob Carpenter's 1849 Will as his daughter.
John and Nancy were in Watauga County for the 1850 census. Isaac Franklin, age 47 and Isaac Franklin age 45 were both 5 and 6 houses away. One could be John's brother.

6776. Mary Carpenter

http://www.martygrant.com/genealogy/carpenter/carpenter-jacob-yancey.htm
Mary Carpenter was born 15 Feb 1826 in Burke (later Yancey, later Mitchell, now Avery) Co, NC. She was probably named for her Aunt Mary Carpenter Roten .
Mary was apparently home with her parents for the 1830 and 1840 census.
Mary married Joseph McKinley Cuthbertson sometime before 1846 in Yancey Co, NC.
Other researchers show that Joseph Cuthbertson was a son of Thomas (1776-1829) and Martha Cuthbertson. I don't know Martha's maiden name. Thomas was a son of William Cuthbertson (1740/50) and Rachel Montieth (1740/50).
Regarding the Cuthbertson family, I found none in Burke County in 1790, unless David "Culbertson" was actually a Cuthbertson. I have seen the name misspelled that way several times.
In 1800, there was a "William Culberson" in Burke. This is probably William Cuthbertson (1740/50), father of Thomas (1776). He had one male in Thomas' age group, age 16-25, or born ca 1774/84.
In 1810, there was "William Culberson" in Burke. This was William (1740/50). He had no one Thomas' age with him, but since Thomas was about 34 years old then, he may have been on his on somewhere else.
In 1820, William and son David were listed near each other in Burke, William Cuthbertson Jr (probably a son of William Sr?) was several pages away, and several more pages away was Thomas Cuthbertson. As best I can tell, all were in the section of Burke County that later became McDowell County. Thomas Cuthbertson had one son under 10, born ca 1810/20, which was probably Joseph M. Cuthbertson (1818).
In 1830 Burke, there was William Cuthbertson (1780/90), William Sr (1740/50), and widow Martha (1780/90), and David (1780/90). Martha was the widow of Thomas Cuthbertson. She had three sons, one under 5 (born ca 1825/30), one 5 to 9 (ca 1820/25) and one 15-19 (ca 1810/15). None of these are a perfect match for her son Joseph M. Cuthbertson (1818), but I suspect he was the age 15-19 one, just enumerated in the wrong column. Either that, or the researchers who have concluded that Joseph was a son of Thomas and Martha were incorrect about it. William (Jr) and David both, in 1830, had sons in Joseph's age group. Could one of them be his parents instead? All of these were in the part of Burke that later became McDowell County.
In 1833, Yancey County was formed from part of Burke, taking the area where the Carpenter family lived. However, the Cuthbertsons mostly remained in Burke (until McDowell was formed).
The 1840 census for Yancey shows only Nathaniel Cuthbertson (1810/20). The bulk of the family was in Burke still, including widow Martha Cuthbertson, who once again did not have anyone exactly Joseph's age with her. He would have been 21 or 22 in 1840, and she only had one male 10-14 (1825/30), and one 15-19 (born 1820/25). Unless this older one was Joseph, then he wasn't home. At his age, he could have been residing elsewhere as a laborer or something. Of the other Cuthbertson households in 1840, Nathan, (next door to Martha) had someone in their 20's living with them. Nathan had one male 20-29 (1810/20), and one male 40-49 (1790/1800), which was presumably Nathan himself. This could be Joseph residing with him. David Cuthbertson also had a male in his 20's with him.
So anyway, Joseph married Mary Carpenter prior to 1846, presumably in Yancey County, where she resided, though they probably went back to McDowell County right away.
"Mary Cuthbertson" was named in her father Jacob Carpenter's 1849 Will.
Joseph and Mary were in McDowell County for the 1850 census, just a few pages from her sister Sophia English.

6777. Frances Matilda "Matilda" Carpenter

http://www.martygrant.com/genealogy/carpenter/carpenter-jacob-yancey.htm
Frances Matilda Carpenter was born 9 Dec 1828 in Burke (later Yancey, later Mitchell, now Avery) Co, NC. She was probably named in part, after her Aunt Frances Carpenter Davis <../davis/wnc/davis-william.htm>.
Frances was apparently home with her parents for the 1830 and 1840 census.
She married Leander Pyatte before 1848 in Yancey Co, NC.
Other researchers show Leander Pyatte to be a child of Joseph Pyatte Jr (1790-1864) and Jean Brooks. Joseph is a son of Joseph Sr (1755-1838) and Sarah Jane Still. "Pyatte" is often spelled "Pyatt", "Piett", etc in records.
Regarding the Pyatte family, I found none listed in Burke County, NC on the 1790 census, unless badly misspelled.
In 1800 Burke, Joseph Piett or Puett (1755) was listed.
In 1810 Burke, Joseph Pyett was listed, as were several named "Puitt".
In 1820 Burke, several were listed, including Joseph "Piett" and Joseph Jr. These two, and the others, all seem to be in the area of Burke that later became McDowell County.
In 1830 Burke, Joseph Pyett Jr was listed in the Three Mile Creek area near the Carpenter family. He had two sons under 5, born ca 1825/30, one of which must be son Leander Pyatte (c1826).
In 1833, Yancey County was formed from Burke, including where the Carpenter family resided, and some of the Pyattes. Most of the Pyatte family was in the section that remained Burke, until later becoming McDowell County.
In 1840 Yancey, Joseph Pyatte (Jr) was the only one listed, and he was just a few houses from Jacob Carpenter. Joseph had one son age 10-14, born ca 1825/30 which must be son Leander (c1826).
Leander Pyatte married Frances Matilda Carpenter before 1848 in Yancey County.
"Frances M. Pyatte" was named in the Will of her father Jacob Carpenter in 1849.
Leander and Frances were listed next to her parents on the 1850 census in Yancey Co, NC. Leander's parents were just two pages away.

Leander Pyatte was killed during the Civil War on 10 Feb 1863. His death was mentioned by his nephew Jacob Carpenter (1833) in his "Anthology of Death ":
"Lander Pyatte age 40 dide Feb 10 1863. Wars fine man. Dide in ware."
I don't yet have Frances' listing for the 1870 census.
On 15 Apr 1877, Frances Carpenter Pyatte married William Vance in Mitchell Co, NC. William was a son of John Vance and Elizabeth Davis <../davis/wnc/davis-william.htm>. Their marriage record gave them as "William Vance", parents left blank, and "Matilda Pyatt", parents blank, married by L. D. Vance, JP. (Toe Valley Genealogical Society Newsletter, Volume 3, Number 4, June 1991, "Mitchell County Marriage Records 1865-1889" extracted by Rhonda Gunter)
I don't have the 1880 or 1900 census listings for them yet.
Frances died on 28 Jun 1902 in Mitchell Co, NC.

Leander Pyatte, b 1826 or 1827, oldest son of Joseph, Jr., and granson of Joseph Pyatte, Sr., a Revolutionary war soldier, was reared on a farm near Spear, North Carolina, where Joseph, Jr. and his wife Jane lived and where they are buried in the Dick Wisean Cemetery on Pyatte's Creek. It is interesting to note that Leander, about whom the least is known and whose grave has never been identified, is the one who gave the most fame to the name Pyatte. It was for him the settlement (town) of Pyatte, N.C. was named and a post office established. The community is still identirfied by that name. (See Pyatt family of Western North Carolina by Martha Pyatte.)
--
Leander died in the Civil War; he was suffering from a fever.
p 222:
Many efforts have been made to locate the grave of Leander, but thus far without success. Stories handed down are at variance causing difficulty in narrowing the search. Jane's children thought he was buried in Tennessee; another, Indiana; still others, Alabama or Georgia. It is not even agred which side he fought on. It is certain that he was taken against his will as he had been hiding out in Pyatte's laurels when he slipped in one night to repair the children's shoes. Soldiers who were watching the house took him by force. He told Tilda that he would not live long as he was suffering from fever.
His homeplace marker was placed in remembrance June of 1978 before the Pyatte reunion.

CARPENTER posted by Pat Holland on Tuesday, February 24, 1998 (Bad email address)I have been searching for my G grandfather's family. He states he was born in Miss. on cencus records. He was Maroin Frances CARPENTER born Dec. 4, 1857. He had one brother that I know of. He was Jefferson Davis Carpenter born Jan 8, 1860 in Miss. I got the cencus for all Miss. for 1860, went through county by county hoping to find him with his parents, but no luck. I've begun to loose hope! Any help would be appreciated. They were in Indian territory by 1880, lived and died in La Floria Co. OK.

PARENTS:
I have ruled out (disproven) James F. Carpenter & Martha L. "Mattie" Hubbard as parents. I found their graves and their John T. Carpenter born 11 Nov 1869 and his grave with death dated Apr. 10, 1885.
While Joshua Carpenter and Nancy Hicks are likely and the favorite for the parents, more evidence needed.

As far as going back, I can only trace back to my great grandfather. The rest is undocumented.
Jeremy Carpenter- b. 1977 Living, North Carolina
William Carpenter- b. 1949 Living, Louisiana
Austin Carpenter- b. c1905 d. 1981 Louisiana
John Carpenter- b. 1866 d. 1938 Mississippi
Do not have proof but I believe it picks up before John with:
Solomon Carpenter- b. 1836 d. 1915 Mississippi
Daniel Carpenter- b. c1800 d. c1880
That's as far as I get trace back, documented and undocumented.
I'm very excited about finding out more!
MOTRE:
I do know my Grandfather Austin Carpenter came from Prentiss Miss. And his father was John Carpenter. Austin worked for his dad John on their farm. After John died Austin moved to Greensburg LA and starting his own logging company. Most of the Carpenters still live in Prentiss, Duck Hills and Hattiesburg Miss. I do know that we came from Prentiss Miss so that is my original line, just don't know who or how we got to Prentiss. I really appreciate the information and help. I'm glad I found you guys.

UPDATE:
> Sent: Saturday, December 21, 2013 7:10 PM> To: Terry Carpenter ; John R Carpenter 2> Subject: Family> > Just sending you guys an update. I spent a few days in Mississippi and Louisiana with family and in courthouses/library's. I have found numerous records on Carpenters in Mississippi and Louisiana. During my research I have confirmed the following:> > Jeremy Carpenter-> Parents- William & Karlene Carpenter> > William Carpenter-> Parents- Austin & Mary Carpenter>>Austin Carpenter-> Parents- John & Eunice Carpenter> > John Carpenter-> Parents- Solomon & Nancy Carpenter> > Solomon Carpenter-> Parents- Daniel & Martha Carpenter> > After Daniel I'm sure as you both know it's speculation. I found some documentation of Daniel being in Limestone AL so that will be my next stop. Hopefully this all leads me back to Solomon & Lucretia of VA since being in NC I fairly close to Botetourt VA where Solomon & Lucretia were married. It seems very possible considering the variations of Lucretia's name and Solomon's name through out the family line. I am looking for other places to research where Daniel and Solomon might have been or lived if any of you can help. When I get back I will send the records/pictures/family info if you like. Jeremy

9109. Carlotta Carpenter

NAME:
Listed as Charlotte in the 1880 US Census.

6276. Peter C. Carpenter

BIRTH:
Age 10 in 1860, age 18 in 1870, age 27 in 1880, Age unk due to burned 1890, Age 47 - Jan (Jun) 1853 in 1900, Age 57 in 1910 and age 67 in 1920.

COMMENT: If born in June, after the 1900 US Census date, then he is a year older then born in 1852. The census used age last birthday. When I look look at various on line records this reasoning and using 29 June 1852 seems common. Yet, no specific record found with that exact date!

OBIT:
Lewis Glen Carpenter was born in Hayti, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1932, to Verba Glen Carpenter and Edna Earl Pullam. He resided in New Braunfels, Texas, where he was close to his family for his last 16 years until he left us peacefully and early on football Sunday, Nov. 14, 2010.
Born into poverty during the Great Depression, he overcame extraordinary early adversity to make an imprint in the National Football League, where he was graced with a 40-year career as player and coach. After playing six-man football in high school, he attended the University of Arkansas on a football scholarship where he was a standout halfback for the Razorbacks. While in college, he also played semipro baseball. His senior year of college he was drafted by the Detroit Lions in the National Football League and was also offered a contract in Major League Baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals. Legend has it that Lew's true aspiration was to be a major league pitcher, but he lost confidence in his pitching ability when a bush league teen hit him out of the park repeatedly on a balmy summer night. And so lore has it that Mickey Mantle thwarted Lew's major league baseball aspirations, resulting in an alternative career as a running back for ten years in the NFL.
Lew spent his first three seasons in the National Football League as a running back for the Detroit Lions, where he was their leading rusher and won his first world championship. His pro football career was cut short when he was drafted into the peacetime Army and spent 18 months stationed in Germany. Upon his discharge from the service, he was traded to the Cleveland Browns, where he won two more world championships playing alongside his brother, Preston Carpenter. His playing career took a legendary turn when Vince Lombardi brought him to Green Bay in his first trade as the Packers new head coach. He played for Lombardi for four years and two more World Championships and retired as a player after the 1963 season.
His coaching career began in 1964 with the Minnesota Vikings and subsequently he held various positions as receivers coach, passing game coach and offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons, the Washington Redskins, coaching alongside Vince Lombardi, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Houston Oilers, the Green Bay Packers, the Detroit Lions and the Philadelphia Eagles. He mentored numerous Pro Bowl players.
James Lofton had this to say about Lew, "Lew Carpenter was a father figure, friend and a mentor. He was the first person I met with the Packers when he came to work me out at Stanford my senior year. We developed a special bond and he was a driving force for excellence behind all the players he coached. His favorite phrase on the practice field was 'you got to love.' There is no mistake, Lew Carpenter loved the game and more so the men who played for him. I was honored to have played for your father. I will miss but never forget his spirit."
He is survived by his wife and soulmate of 62 years, Beverly Ann Holt Carpenter; and his four daughters, Cheryl Carpenter Doane, San Marcos, Texas; Cathy Carpenter, New Braunfels, Texas; Lisa Carpenter Prewitt, San Marcos, Texas; and Rebecca Carpenter, Los Angeles, Calif.; his sons-in-law, Alan Doane and Ron Prewitt; family friend, Alan Blomquist; eight grandchildren, Jennifer Doane, Chad Doane, Kit Carpenter, Rivelino Carpenter, Alisha Carpenter, Natalie Prewitt, Annika Carpenter; and two stepgrandchildren, Sam Blomquist and Will Blomquist.
He was preceded in death by his parents and his grandson, Travis Cory Doane.

His family aspires to embody the values that most defined him, a tremendous work ethic, a deeply gentle and private disposition, a passion for play and a ferocity that made it impossible for him to quit. He was lovingly surrounded by family at his death.
The family requests that donations be made to the Lewis Carpenter University of Arkansas Scholarship, through Chase Bank 111 West San Antonio Street, New Braunfels, TX 78130.
The family will receive friends on Wednesday, Nov. 17, 2010, at 6 p.m. followed by a celebration of Lew's life at Pennington Funeral Home in San Marcos at 7 p.m.
Arrangements under the care and guidance of Pennington Funeral Home, San Marcos, 512-353-4311. Directions, due to construction and guest book online at www.penningtonfuneralhome.com .

John,
Preston will be cremated just as Lewis was. He died in Broken Arrow, OK --may have been Tulsa, as Broken Arrow is where they live and Clarehouse Hospice facility where he died and is in Broken Arrow, I think??
His Memorial Service is at 7 p.m. Thursday night, the 7th of July, at Moore Funeral home, Tulsa, OK.
He was a very good golfer, at one time he actually was good enough to go pro --he spent most of his days with his friends on the golf course. He also had a great connection to the University of Arkansas and never missed an alumni event. Many times he and Lewis met at his home in OK and drove together to Fayetteville for the Arkansas event. They talked on the phone several times a week.
I am planning to put our grave marker (Lewis and me) in one of the New Braunfels Cemeteries, with or without ashes. My death date will be missing until the right time.
I will let you know when our marker is in place. I don't know what Jeanne plans, if anything, as far as a grave marker.
Jeanne and our family are planning to go to U of Ark in the Fall and sprinkle some of both their ashes.
Lewis died at the home of our daughter, Lisa Carpenter Prewitt, as she has a large house (in Hays County, San Marcos, TX) where we could all be with him and care for him those last few weeks. His home address was in Comal County, New Braunfels, TX. We built our retirement home here in 1987.
I didn't see an obit on the Moore Funeral Home website.
Thanks for everything, Ann

John,
I have sad news today as Preston Carpenter left to join his brother today at noon. He has been at a Hospice Facility for several weeks in Tulsa, OK. His wife Jeanne was at his bedside and his son Bruce, and our daughter Cathy.
He was not able to take the death of his brother well, and we feel it may have hastened his passing.
I guess you can add this to the Carpenter brothers genealogy.

Football: Arkansas Great Carpenter Dies at 77
Posted on 30 June 2011
By Robbie NeiswangerArkansas News Bureau • rneiswanger@arkansasnews.com
FAYETTEVILLE — Former Arkansas great Preston Carpenter, who caught a touchdown pass on one of the most famous plays in Razorbacks' football history, died Thursday. He was 77.
Carpenter lettered at Arkansas from 1953-55 and is remembered for teaming with Buddy Bob Benson for a 66-yard touchdown on "The Powder River Play." Carpenter's catch and run was the only score in the 6-0 win against No. 5 Ole Miss in 1954, a season in which coach Bowden Wyatt's "25 Little Pigs" won the Southwest Conference title.
Benson, who was a long-time coach at Ouachita Baptist University after his Arkansas career, died in April.
Carpenter was a team captain and first-team SWC performer at halfback as a senior in 1955 before going on to enjoy a 12-year professional football career.
He was selected by the Cleveland Browns with the 13th pick in the 1956 NFL Draft and played for the organization for four years. He also played for Pittsburgh, Washington and Minnesota before wrapping up his career with the Miami Dolphins in the AFL in 1967.
Carpenter was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1992 and the UA Sports Hall of Honor in 1996. He also was selected to Arkansas' All-Decade team (1950-59).
"He loved the University of Arkansas," Harold Horton, executive director of the Razorback Foundation, said Thursday night. "He loved coming back to our reunions in the spring. He enjoyed being in the lettermen's room prior to games. He was the life of the group. Wherever he was, he just added to where he was. People enjoyed being around him."

CARPENTER, Preston, 77, passed away on Thursday, June 30, 2011 in Tulsa, OK. Born in Hayti, MO on January 24, 1934 to Verba & Edna Carpenter. Preston was a graduate of Muskogee High School in 1952 where he met his future bride of 58 years, "Jeanne" Eytchison.

MISC:
At the outset I should say that my interest in Alonzo Carpenter stems from his marriage to Elizabeth Waterman, my great grand aunt. Bear with me as I write this down on the form of a narrative. I'll be sending along attachments to go along with it. Alonzo Carpenter married Phoebe Jane South on May 2, 1852 in New York State. According to James South they had about five children between then and 1860.

The Carpenter family first shows up in Wisconsin on records in 1860 when they are listed on the Federal Census in Ithica township, Richland Co. At the time two children are listed with them, Charles and Lottie (Charlotte). Coincidentally it is at this time that the Waterman family moves to the same township from Oregon township, Dane Co., WI. I haven't looked up the Carpenters at the Richland County Courthouse yet, but next time I'm down there I will.

Alonzo Carpenter next shows up in 1870. He has moved to Crawford Co., Iowa where he is listed in Milford township, working as a farm hand. His wife and children are not listed with him. John South has said that Phoebe died in 1865 in Iowa, but I have found nothing to prove his claim. I think I have found a listing for Phoebe Carpenter in Wisconsin in the census records of 1870 and later. I'm still looking.

In 1878 Alonzo Carpenter is back in Ithica township where on January 28 he weds Elizabeth Waterman, daughter of Rufus and Hannah Webber Waterman. He is, at this time, a lumber dealer in Denison, CrawfordCo., Iowa. After the marriage they move back to Denison, IA and takeup residence there. In October of 1879 their son Harry A. is born. In1880 The listing in the Federal Census shows Alonzo, a clerk,Elizabeth, keeping house, and two sons, Harry aged 1 year, born inIowa, and Benjamin aged 18 years, born in Wisconsin.

In 1885 Alonzo dies and is buried in Oakland cemetery just outside Denison. Elizabeth will go on to marry Harrison Crippen on December 29, 1887. After his death in 1894, she and her son Harry will livetogether until her death on March 3, 1913. Shortly after that Harry will marry a person named Myrtle and they will have two children. The daughter is named Dorothy and the son is named Harold. One intriguing fact is that in 1988 one Harold Carpenter died in Story City, IA. His birth date was December 1917. Harry Carpenter's son Harold was two and one half years old when the 1920 census was taken June.

Charles Carpenter shows up in 1920 in the Federal Census in Baraboo, WI along with his wife, the former Frances Stone. This is another reason that I feel that Phoebe Carpenter did not leave Wisconsin. I'll have to take another trip to Baraboo on of these days to research this thread. There are other questions that arise. What happened to the other children if Phoebe and Alonzo were supposed to have five children before they left New York? If Benjamin was born in 1862 ashis age in 1880 suggests, he must have been another son of Alonzo and Phoebe. What happened to him? According to my Haskin relatives, Harry left Denison, IA went west and was never heard of again. What happened to him and his wife? That's what so exciting and frustrating about this research. An answer to one question will bring about two or three new questions. Hope this has been some help for your research.

Cordially,

Mike Hodges

.. [In] 1856, Alonzo B. and Phoebe Jane (Smith) Carpenter, came west and located in Richland County, Wisconsin. Their place of settlement was in Ithaca Township on Bear Creek. Here Alonzo B. Carpenter took up a tract of Government land and followed farming actively for a number of years. He also served one term as county superintendent.
He had eighty acres of land and was in a fair way to prosperity when his good wife died on that farm February 21, 1865, at the age of thirty-one years, two months, twenty-five days. She was survived by five young children: Charles A., Charlotte, now deceased; Eugenia, Benjamin F. and Nellie. Charles was then twelve years of age. The father took his little family back to New York State for one year and then returned to Richland County, Wisconsin, and married for his second wife Miss Elizabeth Waterman. There was one child by the second wife, who was born in Iowa. Alonzo Carpenter followed the lumber business in Iowa for a number of years and died there May 16, 1885, at the age of fifty-four years, eight months, seventeen days. He was a well educated man, having gained his education in New York State. He became a pharmacist and was also a skilled accountant. Politically he was a republican and a member of the Masonic Order. The family on both sides were for generations connected with the Friends or Quaker Church. •

The Seventh Presbyterian Church of Jesus Christ was organized on March 27, 1818, by Rev. Elihu V. Baldwin, D. D., in the home of William Badoe, and the first house of worship was located on Sheriff Street, near Broome. In 1842, a new church was built, as designed by Napoleon Le Brun. For more than twenty years the church was known as "Dr. Hatfield's Church," due to the pastorate of the Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., who led the congregation from 1835 until he resigned in February 1856 to become pastor of the North Presbyterian Church. For many years, Seventh Presbyterian Church had the largest Sunday school in the United States. On February 4, 1934, the Seventh Presbyterian Church had its last service, after which it merged into the Church of the Sea and Land on Market and Henry Streets. ...

COMMENT:
The Battle of Cedar Mountain, also known as Slaughter's Mountain or Cedar Run, took place on August 9, 1862, in Culpeper County, Virginia, as part of the American Civil War. Union forces under Maj. Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks attacked Confederate forces under Maj. Gen. Thomas J. "Stonewall" Jackson near Cedar Mountain as the Confederates marched on Culpeper Court House to forestall a Union advance into central Virginia. After nearly being driven from the field in the early part of the battle, a Confederate counterattack broke the Union lines resulting in a Confederate victory. The battle was the first combat of the Northern Virginia Campaign.

Elizabeth Lavina WALKER Birth: 8 Feb 1792 Becket, Berkshire, Massachusetts

NAME: Lovica WALKER Birth: 8 Feb 1792 Granville, Washington, New York. Same Person.
These 3 Elizabeths were believed to be the same person. However, see mother's notes for the problem with this!

Elizabeth "See Notes" Carpenter

Number 1105 in the Carpenter Memorial on page 171.
No Family listed.
Per corrective notes on page 839, Elizabeth married twice. First to Ebenezer Walker of Becket, MA then secondly to Burwell Carpenter of the Providence line that went to Virginia. This matches data in the Virginia Carpenter data records.
AFN MTLC-KN and G8XP-PF are believed to be the same person.
However, children birth dates indicate she must have been born circa 1753 or so. This seems to contradict the 1762 Elizabeth having children about 1773 unless there was two Elizabeths. THIS FAMILY ARRANGEMENT LEFT AS IS UNTIL FURTHER DATA CAN BE FOUND. JRC 9/2000 SEE BELOW.

MARRIAGE: WARNING: BURWELL CARPENTER married ELIZABETH CARPENTER Abt. 1788, she was the daughter of ELISHA CARPENTER and DELIVERENCE MAROUGH.
-- This connection is incorrect. This is false data from Mattie Belle Carpenter Ross connection to the western VA Carpenters. I cannot vouch for the generations from Burwell on down, but it is my understanding that other researchers have proved more of MBCR Elisha Carpenter with wife Deliverance Marough appears to have been lifted out of the IGI with no justification -- there is no evidence of any connection there and those two individuals did not live in NC.
Per Terry Lee Carpenter.
Burwell may have married an Elizabeth but she was not the daughter of ELISHA CARPENTER and DELIVERENCE MAROUGH. Children transfered to the other "Elizabeth.
JRC. 1/2001

1637. John Carpenter

NOTE:
A Descendant tested as part of Group 13 of the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project.

NAME:
John Carpenter did not have and never used a middle initial R., even though dozens of internet trees show it that way -- they copy each other and never check the original records. TLC

NOTE: Please note the profusion of wives to this John Carpenter. I know at least one or more sets are wrong ... maybe. It will be interesting to see which lines prove out in the future. Too many conflicting children and spouses. Some of these John Carpenter families may belong to the related John Carpenters in this line. For now, I have included all data for future researchers. JRC 3/2000.
Slowly but surely we are moving children to their proper places!
Y-DNA has indicated that the son of this John, James Ludwell Carpenter-73141, matches descendants of Thomas Carpenter-5337 of Group 13. This seems to indicate that child and possibly marriage is correct. JRC 3/2010

Subject: Re: Jubal Carpenter definitely Edgecombe, NC
Hi,
I always wished Jubal was my ancestor as no one else had that name and would be so much easier to trace, ha ! But nooo... we had to be of Thomas.
Thanks for the info. I also found this today:
"John R. Carpenter of Greene County, Alabama sold land in FranklinCounty, NC April 5, 1833. Deed to Benjamin Carpenter in Franklin County, NC March 8, 1811; deed to Jubal Carpenter in Franklin County,NC March 17, 1818 and deed to Churchwell Carpenter of Greene County,Alabama 2/1/1828 "
Was posted at: which shows John as father of Jubal. That is probably correct. And Thomas of Nash did have a son named John according to a bunch of researchers. So perponderance of evidence leads one to believe this line is correct as posted:
1. Thomas of Nash
2. John of Edgecombe, Franklin & Greene Co
3. Jubal of Edgecombe, Franklin & Greene Co.
3. Churchwell of "
3. Benjamin of "
* they also show James & Simeon but I didn't see any docs with John and their names together.
So now we have proved the Greene County AL Carpenters are not of the Abigail Jordan line.

First thing I see is this error:
4) Albert L. Carpenter-73496 of Allen Richardson Carpenter-73481 of Thomas J. Carpenter-73418 of Simeon Carpenter-73148 of
John Carpenter-5351 b. abt 1764 Nash, NC M. abt 1790 , Greene, AL d. 1824 Newman,, GA Spouses: Elizabeth UpChurch, Mary ? and Mary Lee ?. AND way to many children!!! of Thomas "Jack" Carpenter-5337 b. 1740 Botetourt, VA d. 6 Aug 1803 ,, NC - See Group 13.
This line was supposed to be members of Group 2, but ...
Genetically tested descendants of Thomas "Jack" Carpenter-5337 are in Group 13 and Group 16. We do not know if this was an adoption situation or what. This line went from VA through Nash County, NC, to Greene County, AL (some alternating between NC & AL and one dying in Newman, GA) then Albert born in LA before winding up in TX.

Someone got that all messed up. This was one of those "somebody said" and everyone copied it, including me at one point. However, now we know the John who died 1824 in Newman, COWETA, GA was John Carpenter the son of Abigail Jordan. He was definitely not the John of NC. Anson Co NC had both an Allen & a Thomas Carpenter listed in 1840 Anson Co but that Thomas was still there in 1860. There was also a Thomas Carpenter in Wake Co NC in 1840 that was of right age to be Allen's father. Some folks on Ancestry show Simeon of Franklin Co NC as his father but no one has any sources.
Thomas was in Sumter Co AL by 1850 where Allen b.1832 is in household. Then Allen is found in MS then LA with son Albert. Then Albert is found in Limestone. So, the latter part was pretty simple to piece together.

Here is what I show for the Greene Co AL Carpenters (Sumter is next to Greene, Montgomery & Washington. BLM shows no old deeds for Carpenters in Sumter):
1. Jubal, Benjamin & Churchwell Carpenters "all" deeded Greene Co in 1823. Records show them born in NC.
2. John Carpenter deeded land in Greene Co in 1828 & 1831 which is hard to do if he died in 1824. He is said to have married Elizabeth Upchurch.
John is said to be older than the other 3 and presumably their father.
John is said to be the son of Thomas Jack Carpenter. This info from others, I've not researched it.
3. Thomas Jack Carpenter d.circa 1803 in Nash Co NC.
4. I found the following land patents for Carpenters in 1830s Greene Co AL:
SIMEON (1830 1837) THOMAS (1834 1837) BENJAMIN (1835) CHURCHWELL M. (1832 1833)
FURNEY L. (1833 1834) JOHN R. (1834) JOHN (1831 1837) JUBAL Jubill? (1837)
KENNITH (1837) PHILLIP (1837) LEE (1834) LEROY (1837)
and SHADRACH (1834)
Thomas Carpenter (1811) might be the one listed in the 1830 Greene Co AL census (of right age with a wife and one young daughter). His son Allen stated he was born in AL so Thomas had to be there by 1832.
The Thomas in question (1811) was in Sumter in 1850 with Allen in hshold and then still in Sumter Co in 1860 and Allen was not (Allen was in Lauderdale MS). So it is very possible that Allen (1832) 's father Thomas (1811) was of the Greene Co Carpenter line. But if Thomas's father was John of Greene Co, his father did not die in 1824 GA. John of Greene Co was alive in the 1830 census, age 60-69.

TLC notes that John See Notes Carpenter-5351 is not related to Thomas "Jack" Carpenter-5337. This line is the old Mattie Belle Carpenter Ross's book on her family "My Ancestry" which was put together by her and a bogus researcher in GA, and is full of errors.

This relationship was restated in another Botetourt County court case on 5 May 1791. Brother Reuben, this John & grandson of Reuben Thomas were listed on the 1803 GA tax roll. In 1805 Henry, John & Thomas were listed in the Lincoln Co. Georgia Land Lottery.

John, Hi, sorry I did not supply enough information in my first E-mail.
Here is what I have on him: John CARPENTER, b. ca. 1773 in VA.
My first record of him is when he paid taxes in Hancock, GA in 1804. He entered the GA Land Lottery in 1805, as a batchelor, and drew one lot, # 866. For him to do this, he must have been in GA for at least a year. He was married around 1805 as well, I believe. His wifes name was Mary, b. ca 1790. She was believed to be Indian, Cherokee. He apparently moved, to Putnam Co., GA, paying taxes in 1815. He entered the 1820 GA Land Lottery, having two draws, receiving his land in Irving and Early County Districts. He was enumerated on the 1820 Federal census of Hancock Co., GA. He was shown with his wife Mary, five boys and four girls:
Hamilton Carpenter, b. ca. 1808, Deborah Carpenter, b. ca. 1810, George W. Carpenter, b. ca. 1811, Nancy Carpenter, b. ca. 1813, Bical Carpenter, b. ca. 1814, John Carpenter, b. 1815, Eleazar "Eli" Carpenter, b. 1816, James Carpenter, b. 1817, Sarah H. Carpenter, b. 1825.
John Carpenter died around 1839. Mary died ca. 1857. Hope this information helps.it is all I have on he and his wife. I have plenty on the children and the resulting families. I am descended from Hamilton.

Thank you for responding, Daniel Carter.

Here is my web page with more information on it if you have the time..... Wylene Alston. 27 July 1999 WyleneL@aol.com .

Part of her page is listed here;
JOHN AND MARY CARPENTER
Headright Land Grants were land grants issued by the Colonial Government, based upon the number of persons in a household. A man would be entitled to two hundred acres as his own headright, plus an additional fifty acres for his wife, each child and each slave. He could not receive over one thousand acres. The Colonial Government was under the rule of a King or Queen in England. These grants were given to entice settlers into this new Country. After the American Revolutionary War, our government gave out land grants which were called Bounty Grants. These were given to men that had served America during the war. Widows, orphans and certain others could also receive these grants. In 1805, the United States Government began distribution of lands that were ceded to them in Indian treaties. This distribution of land was done by Land Lottery in which lots were drawn from hats. When there were more entries than lots, blanks were used. Those that drew blanks received no land. A free white male, a bachelor, 21 years of age or over with one year of residence in Georgia, and a United States citizen received one draw. A married male with the same qualifications received two draws.
Our earliest record of John Carpenter, who was born in Virginia between 1770 and 1780, was when he paid land taxes in Hancock County, Georgia, in 1804. John Carpenter entered, and as a bachelor, drew only one lot. This was lot number 866 which was a blank. Hancock County, Georgia, was formed partly from Headright Land Grants, Bounty Grant Lands, and partly from Indian lands. For John to enter the 1805 Land Lottery, he had to show proof of one year of residence. This would mean that he was in Georgia by 1804.
John and Mary Carpenter were probably married by 1805. Many have wondered at the degree of Indian blood of this couple.
Was Mary an Indian, or was John? Maybe they both were. The only documentation found that even hints at Indian blood is on the 1850 Federal Census record of their son, George W. Carpenter, in Upson County, Georgia, on page 285. The census taker turned the page sideways and wrote what surely must be "NATIVE AM. CLASSIFICATION".
John Carpenter paid land taxes in Putnam County, Georgia, in 1815. He entered the 1820 Georgia Land Lottery, this time he had two draws, and received his land in the Irvin and Early Districts.
John was enumerated in the 1820 Federal Census in Hancock County, Georgia. He was shown with his wife, five sons and four daughters. This would have been one daughter born 1804-10, Hamilton and George W. born 1804-1810, Deborah, Nancy and Bical born 1810-1820, John, Eli, and James born 1810-1820.
In 1822 Crawford County was formed out of parts of old Houston, Marion, Talbot, and Macon Counties, Georgia. Then in 1824, Upson County was created from Pike and Crawford Counties.
On the sixth day of July 1824, John Carpenter and a John Bell, together, purchased lot number 82, in the 16th district of Houston County, Georgia. This land lot had been drawn by a Sheldon Farrow, but it had been levied on and sold to John Carpenter and Bell by Sheriff Burrell Orr of Pike County, Georgia.
More than a year later, on the 29th of November 1825, in Burke County, Georgia, John Carpenter paid seventy dollars to Bell, and received a quit claim deed to Bell's share of this property. This second deed was written on the back of the first deed. These deeds were not registered until the first of March 1845, in Upson County.

Hamilton Carpenter, the oldest son of John and Mary Carpenter, entered the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery. He drew land lot number 180, District 9, Section 1 in Putnam County.

John Carpenter and his family were listed on the 1830 Federal Census in Putnam County, Georgia. Their household consisted of seven males and four females. This would have been John, listed as born 1770-1780, Mary born as born 1790-1800. The eldest daughter was gone, probably married. Hamilton was listed as born 1800-1810, Deborah as born 1800-1810, George born 1810-1815, Nancy and Bical born 1810-1815, John and Eli born 1815-1820. James and another male are listed as born between 1820-25. We have no record of this last male child, and we don't find Sarah on this census. She was born ca. 1825, and should be listed. There is a possibility that she was mistakenly recorded as a male, but in the 1840 census there is also a male listed who is unaccounted for. So most likely, there was a son younger than James. This youngest son was listed in the 1830 and 1840 censuses, but was not living at home in 1850, when the first census was taken that listed each member of the family by their first name and gave their age and state of birth.

The Carpenter family was probably still living in Putnam County when George W. Carpenter married Elizabeth Louisa Wallace there on the fifth of June 1832. On the tenth of December of the same year, John Carpenter deeded fifty acres of land in Putnam County to a John Cousins.

John and Mary and their family, probably along with George and his family, had relocated in Upson County, Georgia, by the first of January 1838, when their daughter, Deborah A. Carpenter, married William Hickey there. Another daughter, Bical Carpenter, married Pleasant Spears on the fourteenth of January 1838, also in Upson County.

George W. Carpenter sold some land in Upson County to Sarah Raines on the twentieth of April 1839. George W. then moved to Talbot County, Georgia, where he was listed on the 1840 census with his wife, three sons and one daughter.

In the 1840 Federal Census of Upson County, Georgia, Mary was listed as head of the household. Also enumerated were four males and one other female. This would have been Hamilton, Eli, James, the youngest son, and Nancy. John Carpenter had died in the latter part of 1839. Deborah Carpenter Hickey and Bical Carpenter Spears and were in their husband's households in 1840.

John Carpenter Jr. in 1840, was listed as head of his own house- hold as born 1810-1820. A female is also listed in his household as born 1820-1825. Sarah wasn't shown in her mother's household in 1840. This could very well be Sarah, keeping house for her brother. On the first of May 1841, Hamilton Carpenter and McDade Donnelly signed, sealed and delivered a security bond to Samuel Caraway, the Deputy Sheriff of Upson County. This bond of five hundred and twenty-six dollars and ninety cents was payable to William W. McNeil. The conditions of the bond was that George W. Carpenter should appear at the next Superior Court in Upson County on the third Monday in August, and would not depart from the county. To secure that McDade Donnelly would not be held liable for any loss, Hamilton Carpenter put up as security, one hundred acres and a negro girl named Betty, about twenty-one years of age.

John Carpenter Jr. married Sarah Cummings on the twenty-third of August 1846 in Upson County, Georgia. She was possibly the daughter of Stephens Cummings. As far as we know, they only had one child, Napoleon, born in 1847.

James Carpenter married Irene/Arena Norris on the tenth of January 1848, in Troup County, Georgia. He probably died before 1850, when the Federal Census was taken. In 1850, Irene and their daughter, Sarah A., was enumerated in the household of her parents, Samuel and Elizabeth Norris. In 1860, Irene and Sarah are listed in the household of her brother-in-law, Mark H. Griffin, the husband of her sister, Cornelia. Elizabeth Norris, widowed, was also living in the Griffin household.

On the seventh of May 1850, George W. and Eleazar Carpenter witnessed a deed for their brother, Hamilton

Carpenter. Also witnessing the deed was Edmond Killebrew, a neighbor of George W. Carpenter. In the 1850 Federal Census of Upson County, Georgia, taken on the twenty-eighth day of April, Edmond Killebrew was listed as household number two.

Household number four was George Carpenter and his wife, Elizabeth Louisa (Wallace) and their eight children, Jesse, George, Sarah, John, Louisa, Diadimona, Missouri and Harriet, with an age range of three through eighteen years. George is listed as a farmer. By 1860, George and his family were in Stewart County, Georgia, where they established their permanent home.

William and Deborah (Carpenter) Hickey and their children, Mary, Benjamin and Caroline were household forty-one, with William Hickey's occupation shown as a blacksmith. By 1860, the Hickeys were settled in Schley County, Georgia.

Hamilton and Berthina (Norris) Carpenter and their first three children, Calvin, Greenville "Green" and Deborah, were household number fifty-one. Hamilton was listed as a farmer. Berthina was shown as not being able to read or write. Hamilton and his family stayed in Upson County, Georgia, on the Carpenter land. This land remained in the Carpenter family until Hamilton's son, Green Carpenter, sold it to his stepson, Edgar Allen, the twenty-sixth day of December 1916.

Edgar Allen was the son of John Wesley Allen, who died in 1862 of neglect and lack of supplies while serving in the Confederate Army. After the Civil War, Edgar's mother, Frances Allen, married Green Carpenter. They had one daughter, Lucille, who married Scott McMichael on the twenty seventh of April 1907, in Upson County.

Eli and Annzena (Norris) Carpenter were household fifty-two. At that time, they had three children, Mary Ann, Dilly, and an infant listed as two months old. Dilly is listed on an old bible record as Juley Ellender. She died the first of September 1858.

The 1850 census and the bible entry of her birth and death are the only record we have of her. The infant listed was William Cicero Carpenter. Eli and Annzena are both shown as being unable to read or write. In 1860 Eli, his family and brother, John Jr., are listed in Randolph County, Alabama.

Household number fifty-three was John Jr. and Sarah (Cummings) Carpenter, their son, Napoleon, and Mary and Nancy Carpenter. John Jr. is listed as unable to read and write, without occupation and insane. Nancy is listed as an idiot. There is no notation as to whether she could read or write, but it is doubtful.

Mary Carpenter died before 1860, probably before the twenty-fourth of April 1855, when Nancy was admitted to the Georgia State Mental Hospital in Milledgeville, Georgia.

Nancy could very well have been a victim of Down's Syndrome. There has been several instances of it down through the family.

Mary was probably the only one who could control Nancy. When she died, Nancy didn't understand what had happened to her mother and was grief stricken with the loss. The rest of the family probably couldn't manage her, so they had her committed.

Nancy died the thirtieth of June 1855, two months after entering the Georgia Mental Hospital in Milledgeville.

As to John Carpenter Jr., it is not so easy to come up with a simple explanation. John married Sarah Cummings on the 23 of August 1846, in Upson County, Georgia. At that time, to have acquired a wife, he probably was or seemed to be functioning normally. They had one child, Napoleon, who was three years old in 1850. No one will probably ever know what was wrong with John, Jr. In 1860, Mary and Nancy were both dead. Sarah (Cummings) Carpenter and her son, Napoleon, were in the household of W.R. Jarrold in Upson, County, Georgia. Sarah was listed as a domestic. John was living in the household of his brother, Eleazar, in Randolph County, Alabama.

B. HAMILTON CARPENTER
SECOND CHILD OF
JOHN AND MARY ANN CARPENTER

Hamilton Carpenter was the oldest son of John and Mary Carpenter. He was born in 1808, in Georgia. We first find record of him when he entered the 1827 Georgia Land Lottery. He drew land lot number 180, District 9, Section 1, in Putnam County.

He would have been about nineteen years old at that time. He was living in his father's household in Putnam County, Georgia, when the 1830 Federal Census was taken. About 1835 he moved with his family to Upson County, Georgia.

He was listed paying a poll tax of twenty-two cents in 1837. The Upson County Tax Digest shows that he paid tax one hundred and one and one fourth acres in District #1. The next time Hamilton was shown paying a tax was in 1839, where he paid tax on the same land as in 1837, twenty-eight cents.

John Carpenter died in June 1839, without a will. Everything he owned had to be inventoried and sold. Hamilton purchased the following items from his father's estate: one log chain, two dollars and six and one fourth cents; one broad ax, three dollars and fifty-six and one fourth cents; one lot of plow gear, two dollars and six and one fourth cents; one lot plow and ox ring, two dollars and twelve and one half cents; one lot farming tools, one dollar; one scythe and cradle, one dollar and sixty-two and one half cents; one plow, saw and cuneiform (wedge), sixty-two and one half cents; one iron wedge, eighty-one and one fourth cents; one lot of hoes, one dollar and thirty-one and one fourth cents; 3 axes, two dollars and twelve and one half cents; one steelyard (scales), twenty-five cents; eight bushels of oats, three dollars; and three bushels of oats, eighty-seven and one half cents.

In 1840, Hamilton paid taxes on the land that his father, John Carpenter, had paid taxes on prior to 1840. Hamilton was not in the Tax Digest in 1841. In 1842, besides paying tax on the same land as in 1840, Hamilton was also shown as having two hundred and thirty dollars and fifty cents at interest, and paid three dollars and five and three fourths cents in tax. In 1843, he was only listed as paying tax the land, his tax was one dollar and sixty- five cents.

Hamilton was listed with only one hundred acres in 1844, but he also owned two slaves, and paid two dollars and thirty-one cents in tax. In 1945, he paid tax on one hundred and sixty-seven acres and two slaves. He paid two dollars and forty-eight cents in tax.

On the third of March 1845, Hamilton Carpenter married Berthena Norris in Harris County, Georgia. She was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Elizabeth (Stone) Norris. Hamilton's brother, Eleazar "Eli", married Berthena's sister, Annzena, and his brother, James, married her sister, Irene. On the first of May 1841, Hamilton Carpenter and McDade Donnelly signed, sealed and delivered a security bond to Samuel Caraway, the Deputy Sheriff of Upson County. This bond of five hundred and twenty-six dollars and ninety cents and was payable to William W. McNeil. The conditions of the bond was that George W. Carpenter should appear at the next Superior Court in Upson County on the third Monday in August, and would not depart from the county. To secure that McDade Donnelly would not be held liable for any loss, Hamilton Carpenter put up as security, one hundred acres and a negro girl named Betty, about twenty-one years of age.

There are no tax records for 1846 through 1849 in Upson County, but in 1850 Hamilton Carpenter paid tax on one hundred and sixty-nine acres and paid eighty-eight cents in tax.

On the second of May 1850, Hamilton Carpenter sold one hundred and sixty-nine acres of land to Edward Raines for eight hundred dollars. His brothers, George W. and Eleazar, and an Edward Killebrew witnessed the deed. In 1851 when he paid his poll tax, he owned no land, but had four hundred and thirty dollars at interest and paid one dollar and twenty-seven cents.

On the twenty-fifth of August eighteen fifty-one, Hamilton Carpenter purchased two hundred and two and one half acres of land from his brother George W. Carpenter, he paid one thousand dollars. This deed was not recorded until the twentieth of March eighteen ninety-five.

In the 1850 census of Upson County, Georgia, taken on the twenty- eighth of August, Hamilton Carpenter was listed as head of house hold number fifty-one. He was shown to be forty-two years of age, born in Georgia, and was a farmer. The value of his real estate was shown as eight hundred dollars. Berthena was twenty-five years old and born in Georgia. It was indicated that she could not read or write. At that time they had three children, Calvin, age 3, Greenville, age 2, and Debora, two months old.

There are no tax records for 1852 and 1853. In 1854 Hamilton was shown with two hundred and two and one half acres and paid a tax of twenty-five cents. The tax records for 1855 are also lost, but in 1856, "Hambleton" Carpenter was listed with two hundred and three and one half acres and paid a tax of one dollar and ninety-one cents. This record shows he has one child between eight and sixteen. This was the only age group for children listed on the tax records.

Tax records for only one year between 1856 and 1860 are available, and which year is unknown, but Hamilton had the same acreage, paid twenty-five cents in tax and still had only one child between eight and sixteen. In 1860, he had the same acreage, paid the same amount of tax, but had seven children between eight and sixteen. The 1860 Federal Census taker in Upson County, Georgia, was remiss in his job and used initials instead of taking the time to write the given names of the people being enumerated. On page six hundred and fifty, B. H. Carpenter was listed as fifty-three years of age. His personal worth had increased from eight hundred dollars in real estate in 1850 to seventeen hundred dollars in real estate and three hundred and fifty dollars in personal estate.

Berthena, shown as B. E. Carpenter, was thirty-six years old and was again listed as unable to read and write. C. N. (Calvin) was thirteen, G. N. (Greenville) was twelve, D. A. E. (Deborah) was ten, J. T. (James) was nine, B. A. (Ann) was seven, L. A. D. (Lydia) was five, H. P. (Hamilton Parks) was two, and J. G. (John) was listed as zero twelfths.

On this 1860 census, Hamilton Carpenter was listed as dwelling house number eight hundred and seventy-two. Dwelling house numbers eight hundred and seventy-two and seventy-three were listed as unoccupied. These were probably the houses that Eli and John Carpenter were listed as living in as heads of the household in the 1850 census.

In 1861 Hamilton paid tax on two hundred and three acres, has five children between eight and sixteen and paid twenty-five cents in tax. In 1862 and 1863 he has six children between eight and sixteen and a tax amount isn't listed. In 1863 his land had increased to two hundred fifty-seven acres His land in 1864 was listed as two hundred and three acres and he paid forty-five dollars and fifty-seven cents.

There is no record of an estate settlement for Hamilton Carpenter, but according to tax records, he died between the time he paid taxes in 1864 and 1865 when his widow, Berthina, was listed on the tax records.

On the eighth of June 1870, Berthena was shown as head of household number three hundred sixty-one. She was forty-six years old and unable to read or write. Her real estate value was listed as one thousand dollars and her personal estate as five hundred dollars.

Deborah Carpenter's age was listed as twenty-four years, but this is not correct, she would have been twenty. She was listed as two months old in 1850 and ten years old in 1860. Her occupation, as all the children in the household, was listed as farm hand and they were all shown as not being able to read or write.

James Carpenter was twenty, Ann, seventeen, Lydia, fifteen, Parks, thirteen, and John, ten. Jeff's age is covered by an ink blotch, but he would have been seven, his age was listed as seventeen in 1880. Also listed is a female child, Carrey Carpenter, her age was seven months old, with the notation that she was born in November. This child was not listed in the 1880 census.

Calvin Carpenter married Frances M. "Fannie" Smith in Upson County, Georgia, on the seventh of November 1869. They were living next to Berthena, in household three hundred sixty-two in 1870. This was probably the house Eli and Annzena Carpenter occupied in 1850.

The next household after Calvin Carpenter, number three hundred and sixty-three, could have been the house Mary Carpenter was living in when she died. James Smith, forty years old and listed as a farm hand, was living in it in 1870. His wife, Martha, was also age forty. They were probably the parents of Calvin's wife, Frances. Calvin was twenty-four years old and was listed as a farm hand, he was probably working for his mother, Berthena. Frances was twenty years old and shown as keeping house. Their daughter, Mary, was four months old, with the notation she was born in March.

All of Berthena (Norris) Carpenter's children were living with her, or in the next household, in 1870, except for Greenville "Green" Carpenter. We haven't located him in 1870. Green Carpenter married Frances Allen, the widow of Job Allen, on the seventeen of December 1879, in Upson County, Georgia. Job Allen died of disease at Camp Pickens, Virginia, on the twenty-first of January 1862. Green and Frances Carpenter had one daughter, Lucille. She married Scott McMichael, whose family lived nearby.

In 1880, in Upson County, Green Carpenter and his wife, Frances, were living in household ninety-one. Berthena was head of the household in number ninety-two. Listed with her were Deborah, thirty, Lydia, twenty-five, Hamilton P., twenty-two, John G., twenty, Jefferson J., seventeen, Alice Carpenter, ten, listed as a grand-daughter and Hamilton, 22, named as a nephew. This nephew was John Hamilton Carpenter, the youngest son of Hamilton's brother, Eli, and Berthenia's sister, Annzena (Norris) Carpenter.

Calvin Carpenter was in household number ninety-three. He and his wife, Frances, had three children, Mary, ten, James W., five, and Charles one.

It is possible that the Carrey Carpenter, listed in Berthena's household in 1870 as age seven months, is the above mentioned Alice. The ages are the same. The 1880 census was the first to name the relationship of the members of the household to the head of the household, so there is no way of knowing if Carrey was a granddaughter. Then there is the question of whose daughter was Alice? Calvin has a daughter, Mary, a few months older, so she wouldn't have been his Green wasn't married. It is possible that she may have been Deborah's daughter.

On the seventeenth of December 1890, Green Carpenter purchased his brother Jack's one eighth share of inherited land from their father's estate for one hundred and ten dollars and sixty-two cents. On the ninth of May 1891, Green purchased his brother Calvin's one eighth share for ninety dollars. Calvin's share included what was known in the area, as the "Carpenter Spring".

Green Carpenter then purchased his brother John G.'s share on the thirtieth of May 1891, for one hundred and ten dollars and sixty- two cents. On the twenty-eighth of November he purchased his sisters Elizabeth's and Lity Ann's undivided shares for ninety six dollars each.

The Carpenter land stayed in Green Carpenter's possession until he sold it to his stepson, Edgar Allen, the twenty-sixth of December 1916. Green Carpenter died in the early 1930's in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where his daughter Lucille lived. Walter "Scott" and Lucille (Carpenter) McMichael were childless, but raised Scott's nephew, Jack McMichael.

DEBORAH A. CARPENTER
THIRD CHILD OF
JOHN AND MARY ANN CARPENTER

Deborah A. Carpenter and William Hickey were married the first of January 1837, in Upson County, Georgia. In the 1850 Federal Census of Upson County, Georgia, Deborah's age was given as thirty-six. This would give her year of birth as 1814. In the 1860 Schley County, Georgia, Federal Census her age is listed as forty-nine, making 1811 her year of birth. In 1870, her age was sixty and setting her birth year as 1810. She was very likely born 1810, only admitting to being older than her husband in her later years.

John Carpenter died without a will in 1839. His estate had to be inventoried and sold. William Hickey purchased the following from John's estate: one lot of old iron, one dollar and eighteen and one fourth cents; bellows, tongs and one piece of iron, two dollars.

William Hickey was first listed in the Upson County Tax Digest in 1845. He is listed as one poll, owned no land and paid sixty-eight cents in tax. There are no Tax Digests found for 1846 through 1849. In 1850, the Tax Digest shows that William Hickey owned no land and paid no tax. The 1850 Federal Census of Upson County, Georgia, William Hickey was listed as thirty-eight years old, his occupation listed as a blacksmith and his real estate valued at six hundred dollars.

He owned no land in 1851 or 1852, paid no tax in 1851, but in 1852, Hickey paid forty-six and eight tenths cents in tax. There are no Tax Digests found for 1852 or 1853, so the last record we have of him in Upson County was the 1852 tax record.
On the 1860 Federal Census of Schley County, Georgia, William Hickey's real estate is worth two hundred dollars and his personal estate listed as two hundred and fifty dollars. In 1870, according to the Federal Census his real estate value has risen to one thousand dollars and his personal value to seven hundred dollars.
William Hickey was listed as one of the first justices of peace in Schley County, Georgia.
William Hickey wrote and signed his will on the tenth of August 1885. To his wife, Elizabeth, during her lifetime, he bequeathed his land and possessions, except his blacksmith and carpenter tools. These were to be sold, and the proceeds of the sale and the money collected from notes and accounts, were to be divided. Two thirds going to his wife, Elizabeth, and one third to his daughter, Caroline E. Heam. Except twenty dollars which he gave to his daughter Mary Ann C. Gillmore and her children. Mary Ann Gillmore and her children were bequeathed all their indebtedness to his estate.

GEORGE W. CARPENTER
FOURTH CHILD OF JOHN AND MARY ANN CARPENTER

George W. and Elizabeth "Louisa" (Wallace) Carpenter were married on the fifth of January 1832, in Putnam County, Georgia. George and his family probably moved to Upson County in 1833. He was first listed on the Upson County tax records in 1834 in Blounts' Militia district. George was listed with three polls, which means there were three men between twenty-one and sixty in his household. These two men were probably his brothers. The tax records states that he owned no land and paid forty-seven cents in poll tax.
There is no Tax Digest found for 1835. In 1836, George Carpenter, still lived in Blounts' Militia District, paid tax on one hundred and one and one fourth acres, he was still listed with three polls and paid fifty-three cents in tax. In 1837 and 1838 George was listed with three polls, paid tax on one hundred acres and paid fifty-nine cents in tax each year. In 1839, he had two polls, paid tax on one hundred acres and paid thirty-seven cents in tax.
George sold his land in Upson County to Sarah Raines on the twentieth of April 1839. George then moved to Talbot County, Georgia, where he was listed on the 1840 Census, with his wife, three sons and one daughter. Acting as agent in 1841 for his mother, Mary, and his brother, John Carpenter, Jr., George paid taxes for them, but he was not listed on the tax record.
On the first of May 1841, his brother, Hamilton Carpenter, and McDade Donnelly signed, sealed and delivered a security bond to Samuel Caraway, the Deputy Sheriff of Upson County. This bond of five hundred and twenty-six dollars and ninety cents was payable to William W. McNeil. The condition of the bond was that George W. Carpenter should appear at the next Superior Court in Upson county on the third Monday in August, and would not depart from the county. To secure that McDade Donnelly would not be held liable for any loss, Hamilton Carpenter put up as security, one hundred acres and a negro girl named Betty, about twenty-one years of age.
George Carpenter was not listed on the tax records in 1842, but in 1843 He was listed with one poll for himself, and two polls for two slaves that he owned. He paid tax on sixty-six acres, two dollars and twenty-two cents. In 1844, he paid tax on sixty-seven acres, eighty and one half cents. In 1845, he was shown as owning no land and paid sixty-eight cents in tax.

There are no tax records available for 1846 through 1849. In, 1850 George paid tax on two hundred and three acres, three slaves, a total of three dollars and sixty-two cents in tax.
In the 1850 Upson County, Georgia, Census, taken on the twenty- sixth of August, George was listed as thirty-eight years old and a farmer with a real estate value of three thousand dollars. His wife, Louisa, thirty-five, Jesse, eighteen and a student, George, fifteen, Sarah A. thirteen, John, nine, Louisa, seven, Diadimina, five, Missouri, four and Harriett, two. The 1850 census taker turned the census record sideways and wrote what must be "Native Am Class." This is the only hint of the Indian heritage in the family.
At the same time the census was taken, there was also a "slave census taken. This 1850 slave census showed George Carpenter owning four slaves: one black female, twenty-four years of age; one black female, fifteen years of age; one mulatto male, six years of age; and one mulatto female, four months old.
The last time George was listed on the Upson County tax records was in 1851. He paid tax on two hundred and three acres, four slaves, had twenty dollars at interest, he paid four dollars and sixty-two cents in tax.
George W. Carpenter and family were on the 1860 Federal Census of Steward County, Georgia. His real estate value was listed as two thousand dollars and his personal estate as seven thousand dollars. Jesse, the oldest child, wasn't living at home, George, Sarah, John, Diadimima, (Isabella) Missouri, (Mary Etta, Harriett) Mor ganella were all listed. His children born since 1850 were Sophia, whose age was given as eleven, but most likely was ten, Etheldor, eight, Victoria, six and Emma, four.
The 1860 slave census enumerated George Carpenter with six slaves: one black male, forty-five years of age; one black female,thirty- seven years of age; one one black female, twenty-five years of age; one mulatto male, seventeen years of age; one black female, ten years of age; one black male, forty years of age; one black female, one year of age; and one black male, one year of age. George W. Carpenter was listed on the Muster Roll of Co. G, 46th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry C. S. A., Stewart Co.,
GA. He was a private in Zollicoffer's Guards, recruited March 2, 1862.
B,His son, George W. Carpenter, Jr. was mustered in 4 March 1862 as a private in Volunteer Infantry, Army of Tennessee, C S A, Schley County, Georgia, Schley Rifles. He was transferred to Co. G, on the twentieth of March 1862. He was captured at Atlanta, Georgia, on the twenty-second of July 1864.
John J. Carpenter, George's fourth child, was mustered in as a private on the tenth of November 1861, into Company G, 31st Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Evans Brigade, Gordon's Division, Army of Northern Virginia, C S A, Chattahochee and Stewart Counties, Georgia., He was appointed Corporal in 1861, and 5th Sergeant on the second of November 1862. He was wounded in 1863, and surrendered the ninth of April 1865 at Appomattox, Virginia.
George W. Carpenter, Sr. was listed on a tax list of firms and individuals paying tax to operate business in Stewart County, GA, in 1868. He was on a list of jurymen eligible for jury duty in 1869, Stewart Co., GA.
In 1870 George and Louisa are listed with children, Sarah, Vickie, and (Emma) Anna. Their daughter, Diadimima Perkins, and granddaughter, Mary Perkins, age seven, are also living with them. His real estate value is listed as one thousand five hundred dollars and his personal estate as two thousand dollars.
John J. Carpenter, age twenty-nine, his wife , Alice E., age twenty-three daughter, Emma, age two, and son John B., age six months and shown to have been born in December, were listed in Sumter County, Georgia on the 1870 Federal Census.
George and Louisa are listed with four grandchildren in 1880. William Rowe, thirteen, Oscar Rowe, eleven, Lena Rowe, nine and Thomas Rowe, six.

Hello John.
I heard about your CD project, and all the Carpenter family info you have gathered. If I could enlist your aid to help clarify a questionable part of my family tree, I would be grateful. I am a descendent of Eleazer (Eleazar) Ely Carpenter b. 1816 Putnam Co. GA. Most family research gets cloudy at this point. We know his father was John Carpenter b. before 1790 in Virginia. Recently, at the www.familysearch.com site, Eleazar is linked to the Carpenter's from Jamica, NY and earlier Rebohoth, MA. Specifically, Joseph Carpenter b.1628 in Amesbury,Wiltshire, England. The lineage from Joseph to Eleazer is sketchy. Joseph b. 1628, John b. 1658 CT?, John b.abt 1680 Jamaica, NY, John b.abt 1700 NY, John b. abt 1730 NY, John b. 1765 NY died VA, John b. 1786 VA, Eleazer b. 1816.
I was wondering if you could verify or disprove this linkage. If it is valid then the line continues to before 1000 ad. If it is someones wishful thinking, then I am basically stuck at Eleazer's father. Thank you, Darryl Cook.
PS: My connection to Eleazer is as follows.
Eleazer Carpenter>>Alonzo C. Carpenter>>Cicero O. Carpenter>>Peggy L. Carpenter>>Florene Worthley>> Darryl Cook

Hi John,
... "Bob Carpenter is #6060 in the Y-DNA study. He and I have been working on connecting his line for a couple of years. I'm certain it is connected to the Carpenters A'Plenty line -- he found a member of that line to join the Y-DNA project, should be seeing their sample by December. The Kiser connection is very significant. I'll leave it to Bob to explain the story when he's ready."
TLC notes that John See Notes Carpenter-5351 is not related to Thomas "Jack" Carpenter-5351. This line is the old Mattie Belle Carpenter Ross's book on her family "My Ancestry" which was put together by her and a bogus researcher in GA, and is full of errors. Possible "Carpenters A'Plenty" line - German/Swiss Carpenters.

Mary

Possible second marriage of John Carpenter to this Mary. See notes below:

John: Good afternoon.
Please find attached a copy of my Carpenter family data. My purpose in sending this to you is my hope in finding history on a Thomas Carpenter
m. Mary Lee in I believe Nash Co. NC in the mid to late 1700s. I have one son John Carpenter d. before 1838 in Greene Co., AL.
I hope there may be info in my gedcom file that can be of use to you.

Also, I am interested in what I need to do to obtain a copy of the CD on it's release. Best regards, Mike Coop. wettduk@aol.com

E-MAIL: Thomas Carpenter & Mary Lee.
Thu, 9 Nov 2000 From: Travis Carpenter JoTravCarp@aol.com
My family (Those researching ancestors of James Ludwell Carpenter) have some disagreement with some of the postings we have found on the Internet concerning Thomas Carpenter who married Mary Lee. Information on the Internet shows that Thomas had a son named John Carpenter who went to Georgia. Our information shows that Thomas had a son named John who moved to Green Co., AL. John owned land on Moccasin Creek in Franklin Co., NC, the same land owned by Thomas Carpenter. John had a son named James Ludwell who had extensive landholdings in NC. He is listed in the will of John Carpenter of Greenie Co., Ala. We have a lot of documentation that supports these assumptions and feel quite confident about our line of descent from Thomas Carpenter.
Also on the Internet we have found that Thomas' father was a Solomon Carpenter. We suspect this is not true for reasons that I do not fully understand but I will try to get our "expert" involved and maybe he can shed some light on this subject. We believe that there were 2 Thomas' in this area during the same time. We show a Solomon Carpenter in VA who had a son named Thomas who served in the Revolutionary War, and died in VA. There is another Thomas Carpenter of Nash/Edgecombe Co. NC who served in the Revolutionary War and died in Nash Co. This is the Thomas who married Mary Lee. The Lee's, Burwell's, and Ludwell's were all Tidewater families. We think there was a close relationship to these families as these names appear as first or middle names of our family members. We believe that Thomas Carpenter was not the Thomas from Botetout Co., but rather from the Tidewater.
If anyone has information to add to this and help clear the waters it would be greatly appreciated.

Hi John,
Found this in some old emails which is pretty positive proof that Jubal Carpenter of Greene Co AL was from Edgecombe Co NC.
If his father was John, then it is probably John was living in the same area. Wonder if Nash Co is near Edgecombe. Will have to look.

3609. William "Buck" Carpenter

NOTE:
Per Carolyn Spence of Trinity, NC in a letter dated 8 Mar 1999.
2. WILLIAM BUCK2 CARPENTER (WILLIAM1)1 was born 1802-1812, and died Bef. 1897. He married (1) MELINDA RICHARDSON. He married (2) NANCY BRANNOCK May 10, 1876 in Surry Co. NC.
Notes for WILLIAM BUCK CARPENTER:
I uncovered a mystery to me in the NC Marriage records. It may be possible that "Buck" re-married after Melinda's death. Surry Co. records: William Carpenter age 59, son of William and Rody Carpenter, both dead, married Nancy Brannock age 30, daughter of William and Caty Brannock on May 10, 1876.
This same Nancy Brannock Carpenter, daughter of William and Katie Brannock married at age 50 in Alleghany Co. NC, Ambrose Willey age 65, (he fibbed about his age. He was actually 75 or 76) father of Thomas Willey. Date was 2/11/1897. 1900 Alleghany Census records show household consisting of Ambrose Willey, Nancy, and Susan Carpenter Wolfe, step daughter and William Wolfe, son in law. Susan Carpenter Wolfe was born about 1879. Susan was probably a daughter of William Carpenter.
Nancy Brannock Carpenter Willey was Thomas Willey's step-mother. If Nancy did indeed marry "Buck" Carpenter, then Thomas Willey's wife Martha Jane Carpenter was a step-daughter to Nancy Brannock Carpenter Willey also. This could have been how Thomas Willey and Martha Jane met.
Buck's children Creed and John's marriage licenses dated 1874 and 1876 state their mother dead, their father living. If this is the same William Carpenter, then his parents were named William and Rody.
Information found 2-16-1999 by Carolyn Elliott at the Forsyth County Library: A marriage license was found for Frances S. Carpenter and W.H. Wolfe who married on 8-11-1899 says that Susan's parents were Buck and Nancy Carpenter. So this solves the above mystery. Nancy Brannock Carpenter Willey was step-mother to both Martha and Thomas Willey. It also proves that Buck Carpenter's parents were William and Rody (Rhoda?) Carpenter.

MORE NOTES: He went by " Buck " Carpenter.
William was age thirty-eight on the 1850 Surry , NC census. Lydia was forty-one. Children: Collumbus Age eleven-Jesse age ten-Mary age 9-Caroline age 8- Creed age 7- John age six- Elizabeth age 10 months.
Buck Carpenter was age sixty-eight on the 1870 Surry census and Malinda was age sixty. Children: Mary age thirty - Creed age twenty-three - Caroline age twenty - John age nineteen - Bettie age sixteen - Albert age sixteen ? -Jane age twelve.
NOTE: AUNT ROSA " Grandpa Carpenter was married 3 times. I don't know who his second wife was. He married Jeff Brannock's mother. They did not have children" (then who was Frances age two in the household below?)
NOTE: If in fact he was married three times, there are possibly other children?
Between 1870 and 1880, Malinda has died and William remarried Nancy Brannock 10-May-1876. He is age sixty-six and Nancy is thirty. He has a stepson, Jefferson Brannock, age nine and a new daughter, Francis age Two. All the older children are in households of their own.This census taken 17-June-1880, by Wm. H. Wolf, probably a grandfather or uncle of the William H. Wolf, son of John, who married Susan Francis.
There is also a grandson John T. Carpenter age 9 in his 1880 household, probably John Thomas, son of Elizabeth.
Nancy Brannock Carpenter married 11- February -1897 Ambrose Willey therefore, William probably died between 1880 and 1897.
NOTE:There was a William Carpenter age 32, wife Henrietta age 23 and son Samuel age 7 months on 1860 Wilkes census.
In 1870 Wilkes census William is age 42, Henrietta is age 30, and still only one child, Samuel age 9.
I haven't placed this William.

CHILDREN: Carolyn does not have a separate Martha or an unknown child as child number 12. The unknown child probably was Frances Susan Carpenter who came from the second marriage of "Buck". She is probably correct.

Mr Carpenter, your CD about the Carpenters interests me. I have done some research on my Carpenter family but know only a little more than when I started the research.
James Ludwell Carpenter born 1776-1793 married 1) Beedy------ 2) Eleanor Broadway.
He settled in Anson Co. N.C. Now Stanly Co in early 1800's. He died before Nov.1853 and was buried on his homeplace in what is now Stanly Co. N.C.
Ludwell was my ggggrandfather.
His children were

We have yet to find James Ludwell's parents. It is believed that William (Buck) Carpenter that settled in Anson Co. was a brother to James Ludwell.
The father of James Ludwell may have been a son of John Carpenter of Green Co.Alabama. John was a son of Thomas Carpenter of Nash Co. N.C.
I have some more information on some of these Carpenters.
Just wondered if you had run across any of these Carpenters in your research.
Thank you Genoal Russell.

Melinda or Malinda Richardson

AFN 77RN-QM (Melinda) and CXR1-6T (Lidia) are the same person.

Per Carolyn Spence of Trinity, NC in a letter dated 8 Mar 1999.
Notes for MELINDA RICHARDSON:
I suspect that Melinda was a sister to Alexander Richardson, who married Martha Cheek. Alexander Richardson witnessed a deed for Andrew Willey in 1846. The deed was selling land to Chesley Cheek.

Thanks for responding: We'll try this ...
James W. Carpenter was born about 1861 in DeSoto County, Miss
He married Cass Crow about 1876-1879 They lived in Tate Co.
He died 11/11/1931 In Titus county, TX.
I believe that his father was John W. Carpenter born 1831-1833 in NC
Md Mary C 1853-1855
Died between 1861 and 1865 (in war?)
He was in DeSoto Co, Miss in 1860 as J W, but 1863 Military Tax lists only show John W.
1860 census shows worth of 4800 and 17,500
John and Mary's children: J.B. male about 1856 WT sex unknown abt 1858
James W. abt 1861
In 1870 DeSoto County Miss they are with J G Worrell and Mary has two new Worrell children the oldest born about 1866.
If you need more, please contact me--have hit a brick wall. Have been trying to find military records for a JW and found a Capt. JM Carpenter from Tishomingo, Co who was killed 7/28/1864 and a JW Carpenter who was found on a POW list and muster records from2/15/1862-10-1864 from Pontotoc County, but does not say if he lived or died.
Thank you for any assistance. Have records on descendants if this matches up!!

E-MAIL: Subject: J.W. Carpenter of DeSoto Co. MISP Date: Mon, 19 Jul 1999
From: PaWZake@aol.com
Have been lurking for a while and now feel I can post:
1860 DeSoto MISP Census
J.W. Carpenter, 29 NC

M.C. 23 GA
J.B. 4 MISP
W.T. 1 MISP

He had a personal value of 4800 and 17500. That seems large for those days and the surrounding valuations by others. Granny said that they lost a plantation in the War and that a town is now built where it was. Is this value enough for a small plantation??
1863 Military Tax Lists only a John W. Carpenter so probably is his name.
1870 De Soto Co believe that the following is his wife and new husband. If this is her, then maybe J.W. was killed in Civil WAr.

J.G. Worrell 42 TN
Mary C 32 GA
J.B. Carpenter 14`` MISP
W.T. Carpenter 12 MISP
J.W. Carpenter 9 MISP
Lilla Worrell 4
Annie Worrell 1

Believe that either the JB or the JW is the following:
1880 Tate County MISP

James Carpenter 24 MISP
Cassa 23 MISP
Willie 1 MISP

James and Cassa(na) were married in Carroll County 2/28/1878.
Cass's father Riley Crow married his second wife Elizabeth Johnson in Carroll County 1/17/1878.
Believe that J.G. Worrell and Mary may have moved to Caroll County after 1870.
Have not been able to match my James W. Carpenter who married Cassana with any Carrol County Carpenters.
Am new to this so any leads appreciated.

Subject: Notes for John H Carpenter
Hi John,
Are PaWZake@aol.com and wrenn37@yadtel.net still living? They might have some info on my Carpenter ancestors.
I looked over their notes on John H Carpenter, b.1816, Surry, NC that you have on your Carpenter/Zimmerman family tree on Family Search (). I zeroed in on him because I'm researching my greatgreatgrandfather, J W Carpenter.
I'm 90% sure of the following 3 points:
1. John H is not J W Carpenter.
There's at least a 10 yr age discrepancy when you compare them on the 1850 & 1860 US Census.
Death certificates for J W's sons, W T & J B, list his initials as J W, not J H.
2. James W is not Johnny William, the son of J W and brother of J B and WT.
The 1900 US Census lists Johnny William's name as John W. Living next to both of his brothers.
The 1910 US Census lists John W and his family.
His reat grandson says his name was Johnnie W.
3. The correct surname for Mary C Carpenter's second husband was Norvell, not Novvell or Worrell.
The type written death certificates for their daughters, Lillie and Annie, list his name as Norvell.
W T's typed death certificate lists Mary's name as Mary Norvell Carpenter
The 1870 and 1880 US Census show that the name definitely starts with an N.
I'm always open to new information and evidence. I also realize that this is just 1 family out of the many you're trying to keep track of.

John R. and John F.,
Apologies for not replying to this earlier. I have not been able to place Lewis Peter Carpenter in an established family group, so I carry him in my notes as possibly descended from the Nash Co. NC Reuben Carpenter via Wake Co. NC where he was taxed in 1840, or from the Carpenters A'Plenty group (Group 5), or the Germanna group (Group 22). Hopefully the YDNA will resolve this issue.

A Phillip Carpenter Married Sally Ann Gladhoun 18-May-1853 in Surry county , NC. The 1860 Surry census a Phillip Carpenter age 38 a tenant, born in NC, wife S. L. age 23, two sons, Wm. age 5 and Wilburn, age 3.
The 1870 Wilkes coutny NC census a Phillip Carpenter was age 35, wife Lolina, age 30, four children: William age 16, John age 11, Sarah age 7, and Nancy age 3.
ROGER CARPENTER__998-6956 of ADVANCE, NC.
Ancestors: Henry and\or George Gentry were adopted by Phillip Carpenter,perhaps children of a second or third wife.
They Took the Carpenter name. He knows little else.
A Phillip Carpenter married, 2-April-1873, in Surry , NC Martha J. Killion.

NOTE: I know very little about Phillip and I have no proof that he was the son of William and Rhody. Most of my Carpenter research was done a long time ago. This was the family that I started this hobby with, and did not really know what I was doing (still don't) several people that I talked with, at that time said that they thought Phillip was a son of William or, rather a brother of William Jr.

I have as many as 6 grandchildren of George Washington Carpenter alive today. One I have already gotten DNA from. So I looking for their great grandfather

Thank for that info. Y DNA would certainly be helpful .

In the1860 census record Martha Jane was 13 years old, two houses away lived Calvin Gentry with a son William who was also 13. Martha had George with the middle name Washington. William will later marry and names a son George Washington Gentry. Already have a DNA match to descendants of George Washington Gentry. Am I going in the right direction?

Roger,

If you found a descendant of George and Henry and Y-DNA tested them, you could easily tell if they had the same Y-DNA.

And genetic matching the Y-DNA helps confirm the genealogy. Thus completing the genetic genealogy triangulations.

Assuming a 30 year generation then 5-6 generations is 150-180 years and this is often the practical limit for atDNA matching. And Phillip Carpenter-61233 was born about 200 years ago. This assumes George and Henry's (Gentry?) biological father was born about the same time.

AND a Y-DNA match with males with the surname of Gentry would be icing to the genetic genealogy.

Something to think about!

Thank you John and no apology is necessary, I've come a long way in this journey. So much research before DNA was available. So I have a good understanding of the the events with Phillip Carpenter and Martha Jane Killen. Records are well documented for Phillip that his wife prior had passed. He married Martha Jane with George and Henry. Those doesn't appear to be raised by Phillip at all. Not sure if George and Henry have the same father. Stories passed down to my grandfather suggest Martha was very different than most women in those days, but the story he told me was his father knew George's father was a Gentry. So my Carpenter DNA starts with George.

You mentioned Martha Jane Killen as being a wife to Phillip Carpenter and brought to sons into the marriage.
George and Henry. I am a descendant of George. I knew a lot about Phillip prior to starting my genealogy which only made me curious to who George's real father was. My grandfather said his father was so convinced his grandfather was a Gentry that he looked into changing his last name as he knew Martha Jane in his youth.

I have submitted my father's DNA and a known cousin of my grandfather (still waiting on results) to filter out as much of other blood lines as possible. If I'm correct once I filter out the Blevins of George's wife Samantha I should be able to at least get an idea where our DNA comes from.

Thank you for getting in touch and looking forward to any images you might have.

3688. Jesse Carpenter

Gilmer county VA became Gilmer county, WV shortly after his death.
Jesse Carpenter and James A. Rogers were killed by a group of alleged confederate guerrillas on the night of 7 Nov. 1861. Clayburn Pierson reported "The victims were James Rogers, a peaceful and respected citizen, and Solomon Carpenter, his neighbor. The murders were a band of low characters claiming to be rebel soldiers led by Perry Connolly of bush wack fame. The murderers came to the homes of these inocent men in the dead hours of the night; their wives were absent from home waiting on a sick woman. These fiends dragged their victims out of their beds and away from their children, took them a short distance, bound them back to back, and riddled their bodies with bullets."
Jesse apparently was listed as Solomon in the above report.
James Rogers and Jesse Carpenter were listed as neighbors in the 1860 Clay county, VA (now WV) census.

William built long dugouts, made form a single tree, flat boat builder and operator, raftsman and waterdog fisherman. He was the most inveterate, persistent and uncompromising fisherman ever known in the Valley of Elk. His canoes got a dollar a foot.
Braxton Co. WV. Sutton History pg. 360-361-362-363-364
William Carpenter, now living at the advanced age of 94, son of Solomon, who was the first child born in the county. His birth place was under a cliff of rocks. William is a granson of Jeremiah & Elizabeth Mann

Carpenter, the first white settler in the county, and a great grand son of William Carpenter, who was killed by the Indians on Jacksons River in 1764 [Jacksons River, Botetourt Co. Va.].

Uncle Billy, as he is familiarly called, has spent the long years of his life on the Elk river, and has doubtless caught more fish and game on this beautiful stream than any man living, and is still able to enjoy his favorite sport. He is a citizen of Sutton and is universally respected.

The massacre of Benjamin Carpenter and his wife occurred in the spring of 1792, though Withers memoirs record it as late as 1793, and William Doddrill places the date as early as 1784, eight years before its actual occurrence. The account which he gives of the pursuit of the Indians after the murder of Benjamin Carpenter must have been the account of the time that Hughs and others trailed the Indians and came up with them when one of their number was killed on the Hughs river. The two Indians who found Carpenter and killed Benjamin, made their escape without being pursued. The summer of 1792 was the last Indian raid in central West Virignia except a party that made a raid in the Tygerts Valley as late perhaps as 1794.

Of this interesting pioneer family, more than a passing notice should be given. As early as 1790 or perhaps a year or two earlier, Jeremiah and Benjamin Carpenter settled on the Elk river near the mouth of the Holly. Their mother and a brother named Enos live with them. Jeremiah settled on what is known as the Samuel Skidmore botton, and Benjamin's cabin stood inthe bottom just below the mouth of the Holly. Their father's name was William, and he was killed at the Big Bend on Jacksons river by the Indians , and his son Jeremiah was taken prisoner and remained with the Indians from his ninth to his eighteenth year. He together with three of his brothers became soldiers in the Revolutionary Army.

Their settlement must have been but a few years prior to 1792 as this is the date of the Indian raid in which his brother Benjamin and his wife were killed; and either at this time or perhaps a raid that was made a few months later, he and his family made their escape to a cliff of rocks, and within their stay there his son, Solomon was born, being the first white child born in the county.

Many incidents are related of this pioneer family by their descendants and the older people who have heard the story of their adventures.

William Carpenter, familiarly known as "Squirrely Bill" who resides at Sutton, is in his 90th. year, [NOTE by compilier, he lived to be almost 100 yrs of age.] and is a son of Solomon Carpenter. He relates that his great ucnle, Benjamin Carpenter who, with his wife was killed at the mouth of the Holley, was dressing a deer skin on the bank of the river just at the mouth of the Holly when he wass fired upon. It seems from his story and others of the Carpenter family, that there were two Indians, a large and a small Indian, and that the lrge one was unarmed and the smaller Indian fired the shot, but missed. At that time Carpenter jumped and ran for his gun, but the large Indian reached the house first and secured Carpenter's gun, and was in the house when Carpenter entered the door. He fired and Carpenter fell outside, then the Indians tomahawked and scalped Mrs. Carpenter who was delicate and lying on the bed. They had no children. The Indians set fire to the cabin and left. Mrs. Carpenter had suffiecient strength to crawl out in the yard. Only a few hours afer this occurrence, Amos Carpenter came home. It seems that he had been either to the West Fork Settlements or to Fork Lick on horseback and was returning with some meat. Mrs. Carpenter said to him "The Indians have killed poor Ben and me," and he put her on the horse before him and started to go across the Elk just at he head of the island, and while he was crossing the river she died she he laid her body on some logs in a drift heap. He then hastened on tho his brother Jerry's who lived above on the Skidmore bottom.

William Carpenter also relates that Benjamin Carpenter's mother was at his house helping to burn some logs in a clearing, and that she was not discovered by the Indians. She saw them however, and also witnessed the shooting of her son Benjamin. She had one of her children with her, and she took the child and went up the river to give notice of the presence of the Indians. They then went back tothe settlement and Jerry, his younger brother Jesse and a man by the name of Schoolcraft, came back and buried Benjamin and his wife. Withers fixes this date as being in the early spring, and this is carried out by traditional testimony. Benjamin had fallen so near the building that his body was nearly consumed by the fire. The Indians carried away his gun, also the coat in which he was married.

William Carpenter says that later another raid was made by the Indians and they are the ones who burned Jerry Carpenter's house and barn, partly dstroyed an apple tree and cut down some green corn; also that this was the time his granfatehr and uncle Amos went to the cliff where his father was born. Withers mentions only one Indian raid.

Thomas, Jeremiah and Solomon were privates in Capt. John Lewis's Botetourt County Regiment. Joseph Carpenter was a solider and drew a pension but it is not stated in what command he served. Thus we see that four brothers served their country as soldiers in the Rev. War., and were the most daring and skillful Indian fighters that ever ventured to the wilds of central West Virginia.

Mrs. Carpenter said that first thing which went into Solomon's mouth was bear's meat and sweet patatoes. There must have been a second raid as the circumstances would seem to bear out, hence it must have been later in the season as sweet patatoes do not mature before the latter part of August in that secion, and the time could not have been much later than July or August as Jeremiah Carpenter buried his brother's body and that of his wife in bark coffins, and they could hardly obtain bark after the season named.

The Carpenters must have settled on the Elk a few years before this occurrence as they had some land cleard and some property. "Jerry" had planted some apple trees. The Indians cut a limb from one of the trees, but the tree lived and bore a red apple. It was called the Indian tree, and was living until a few years ago.

"Jerry" Carpenter and his wife are buried at the Skidmore cemetery not far from where his cabin used to stand. Mrs. Delia Coger, a granddaughter of Capt. John Skidmore, was born and reared on the Elk river where she now resied and is aat thtis time over ninety years of age. She says after the masscre of the Carpenter family that his brother placed their bodies in bark which was peeled from the timber, and buried them on the island in the Elk just at which ahs since been washed away. About twent-one years ago, the Holly River Lumber and Coal Company built a large band saw mill not far from where Carpenter's cabin stood. William Gum and others who were putting down the ofundation for the boilers or engine house, say they removed the head sotnes from two graves, and digging down about two feet into the earth which appeared to be loose they placed a cement foundation there. In speaking again to Mrs. Coger in reference tot he matter, she still contended that Benjamin Carpenter and his wife were buried on the island, and that the graves discovered by the workmen were a part of the John Mollohan cemetery, but this graveyard is a mile or so above the mouth of the Holly. William Carpenter says that his great uncle Benjamin and his wife were buried where the Palmer mill now stands tand that he has often seen their graves, which doubless is correct.

It is said that either at the time of the massacre or a later period of that season, Jeremiah took his family and went to a cliff of rocks, there watching the Indians burn his house and destroy his property. The cliff of rocks as pointed out is opposite the mouth of Baker's run on the north side of the Elk, and is situated near the top of the mountain overlooking the valley of the Elk for some distance. He an dhis famly then made their way to a camp under a cliff of rocks near the head of Camp Run, a branch of Laurel creek, about four miles above his residence at what is now known as the Skidmore bottom. Camp run is remarkable rough, and near the head are cliffs that look to be over a hundred feet high, with gulches and broken stone below, making the whole mass stand above the tallest pines which skirt the water's edge. It is on the top of this mass of rock, a few yards back from its pricipitous edges, where the famous Carpenter camp was, there being a large projecting rock which formed a room about 25x30 feet and 8 feet high. Between this cmp and the edge of the cliff is a public road. It is related that Jeremiah Carpenter, and his family waaded up Laurel creek and Camp run to avoid making any sign by which they might be tracked by the Indians.

Joseph Carpenter, son of Solomon, relates that his great uncle Solomon and his wife went tothe rocks with his grandfather, and that when his father was born he was named for his uncle Solomon. At the time of the Indian raid, there was a child in the Carpenter family named Libby, a granddaughter of old Mrs. Carpenter, mother of the Carpenter family. Mrs. Carpenter, as stated before, was burning some brush on the point between the Eld and the Holly, just across the Holly from Benjamin's cabin. She discovered the Indians and started up the river to notify the family. The child Libby being too small to make her escape by flight, was placed in a hollow stump and told to be quiet. When Jeremiah saw his mother coming, he knew there was trouble. He returned for the child. She lived to be a woman, and her daughter married a man named Andrew Ware. Withers speaks of a Carpenter being killed by the Indians on the Little Kanwaha river. He may have been a relative of this family. There remains a doubt as to the time that Jeremiah Carpenter fled to the rock cliffs, but the best impression seems to be when the massacre occurred, at which time the others fled to the settlement on the West Fork.

In April, 1792, Willialm Kipet and a Mr. Neal's son were killed up the LIttle Kanawha river by the Indians. As this was on the Indian trail leading to the upper settlements, it is probable that this murder was committed by the same band that killed Benjamin Carpenter and his family. That was the last raid made by the red men in central West Virginia. Both murders occurred in the same month and year, unless it be true that a later raid to the Carpenter settlement was made in the austumn of that year, which is most probable and is borne out by well authenticated traditional history.

Solomon Carpenter had four brothers, Joseph who was killed while logging near Addison; Amos and Jeremish, both of whom moved to the West Fork of the Little Kanawha and died there; and John who died on Camp run near the cliff under which his brother Solomon was born.

Solomon Carpenter ws the father of seven sons and three daughters viz: Thomas, John, Jacob, Benjamin, William J., Solomon, Joseph, Caroline, Mary and Elizabeth.

There is a daring adventure toldof Solomon Carpenter's wife, Betsy. She tied the children tot he bed post, and went for the cows across the Elk river. In her absence the river raised, and she was unable to re-cross. Her husband being away, and the home being liable to attack by the Indians, she determined to risk her life by swimming across the river.. Being unable to swim herself, she drove the cows in, caught the bull by the tail, wrapped the switch around her hands, plunged into the swollen Elk and crossed in safety. One of her daughters named Betsy married John P. HOsey.

The presnet and future generations that enjoy the blessings of civilization, with all of its immunities and advantages, and the security to life and property, will never be fully able to appreciate the hardships, the great endurance, the personal sacrifice and valient daring of the early pioneers who forged the way to civilization a land of savagery and privation.

Confusion agin occurs in this marriage. The Mowrey book shows this marriage with 5 children, as entered in this record, but, the first birth, Richard DeWitt is in 1914. 1742. Copernicus Carpenter

NAME: Most people stick a John in front of Copernicus. This may be because of his son John C. Carpenter. So far, no evidence has been shown his first name was John. JRC

... Copernicus' father was married prior to Copernicus' birth date, so if Copernicus was a son, he was legitimate. Y-DNA should show whether or not he was biologically related, in which case, son would be what the other evidence indicates.
I have not seen any direct evidence for Copernicus' name being John Copernicus Carpenter. It may have been, but the only name documented so far is Copernicus, and given the family's tradition for unusual forenames like Zophar and Zenith, Copernicus may have been his only name. More research needs to be done on him -- the information we have now is sketchy. There is a lot of information on the internet that doesn't come from original sources, it has been put up by people who added or subtracted names, dates and places according to their personal whims. It's always best to check information against the original records before accepting it as proved.

SAMUEL DAVIS CARPENTER
22 MAY 1814 - 3 NOV 1889
plus names of last century patrons of his store
On a high ridge across from the Carpenter Graveyard off Walker Pike in Garrard County was the eight room log house of Samuel Davis Carpenter, son of Rufus and grandson to Zophar who first homesteaded the site. This short article gives some insite on Samuel and also records the names of patrons who did business at his store in the mid to late 1800s. The names may be of interest to many of their descendants.

Samuel's portrait once hung in my Grandfather Woodson Tudor's home. It along with one of his father, William was noticed by me but little attention was given to them. Both are now beyond recognition and not determined which is which.

Sam raised a large family on the second rate land he owned, some willed to him by his father, Rufus and the rest purchased from his brother Christian when he moved away to Missouri, and from his sister, Almeda and her husband, Willis Shumate, a brother to his wife, Eliza.

There is evidence that his children were educated for their time. Lucinda, his eldest was a school teacher. William David studied law before the Civil War and became the Adjutant of the First Kentucky Cavalry Union. I have seen his good hand writing in the records of his office.

The land itself may not have been of sufficient yield to support his family as he ran a store, probably on his property, for many years. About 41 pages of his account book survive and describes the products and trade that occurred. Each patron's name is recorded on the pages of the book. This compiler was given the remains of Sam's book and has turned it over to the Eastern Kentucky University Archives for preservation. Copies, for use, are maintained by this recorder. After Samuel's death, his son-in- law William Tudor continued the operation of the store for a few years. Scattered through the book may be found the signatures of some of William's sons. The book , based upon the remaining pages, covers a period from about 1857 to the 1880's. It would be prohibitive, spacewise, to include the contents in this limited space. But for others researching the people in the neighborhood, the names of the patrons are listed.

SEE: MISC PICS. RIN 38352
William David Carpenter, 1st KY Cav. Union, son of Samuel and Eliza Shumate Carpenter of Garrard Co., KY.
(There is some speculation that the photo is really that of W. D.'s younger brother John Martin Carpenter of the 7th KY Cav. Union. The owner of this site was told that the subject is in fact W.D. W.D. served as Adjutant for the regiment. He was murdered in Kansas where he was practicing Law. His burial was beside his young wife, Hattie Hayes in the Somerset, KY Cemetery. Hattie died just three months into the marriage. See W. D.'s self portrait he sketched prior to 1873.
SEE: MISC PICS. RIN 38352a
This sketch of W.D. Carpenter was done on a large sheet of Paste Board sometime before 1873.
He was a native of Garrard Co., KY and the Adjutant of The First Kentucky Cavalry, commanded by Frank Wolford and Silas Adams. W.D. was wounded during the Seige of Knoxville, TN. He lost his life 1 April 1873 mysteriously while practicing law in Kansas. It is alleged that his law office burned shortly after he was shot to death. His brother, John M. Carpenter returned his body to Somerset, KY where he was buried beside his wife, Hattie Hayes Carpenter who had died jsut three months after their marriage.

Jane Carpenter Carpenter

Birth: 1819
Todd County
Kentucky, USA
Death: 1900
Missouri, USA
 I believe that Jane might be buried in this cemetery because of her husband and some of her 13 children are in this cemetery. The headstone is missing, but the base is still there.

Headstones in the Carpenter Cemetery =
3 rows, East row going south to north = Sarah, George, William, John M., Infant son of JS & Jane, Infant son of JS & Mary
Middle Row = 3 small stones (large brick size) J.C.; J.C.;
J.W.L.
West Row = John, Jane,Jacob, (a missing headstone), unreadable stone, unreadable stone. (John, Jane, Jacob are the only stones still standing) That makes 14 stones and a base stone.
Old time records = johnc: John and Jane Carpenter are buried in the Earl Decker Family Cemetery west of Syracuse, Morgan County, Missouri near the Earl Decker farm. "The Cearley Connection" By Geraldine Butler.
Jacob S. Carpenter married Jane Carpenter on 12 Dec 1841 in Morgan County, MO.
If Ancestry.com is correct they had 13 children =
Infant son 28 Feb 1843 - 28 Feb 1843
Frances 1844
William Fielder 20 Aug 1845 - 20 Mar 1868
John Marion 07 Apr 1847 - 27 Nov 1865
Janetta 1849
A E 1851
Charles Brooking 24 Feb 1852 - 14 Jun 1932
George W. 13 Dec 1853 - 13 Apr 1853
Infant son 01 Sep 1855 - 6 Sep 1855
James J 1857 - 1935
Jacob D 1859
Jennie Abt 1861
Albert M 4 Mar 1863 - 7 Mar 1913
If my records are correct, Jacob and Mary are 1st Cousins.
Jacob's father is Peter Carpenter, John's older brother.
Jane's death is unknown=
She is found in Moniteau County in the 1880 census with her husband Jacob Carpenter and in 1900 census with her son Charles.

E-MAIL: Subject: Melissa Angeline Carpenter
Date: Fri, 3 Aug 2001
From: Jim Taylor JTa3252718@aol.com
Hi John,
Latting and Augusta Carpenter's daughter Melissa seems a close match.
My Melissa Angeline Carpenter was born in Mongaup, Sullivan County, New York.
She was married in the Methodist Church at Pond Eddy, New York. I don't know how close these locations are to Musketa Cove, Queen, LI. NY.
Melissa and James Forbes Taylor had the following children:
Joseph Levi Taylor (my grandfather) August 04, 1872 - February 25,1940

Carrie Doty Taylor November 20, 1874-November
24, 1919

Edwin Hurst Taylor July 26, 1877-May 09, 1941
Jenny Taylor March 06, 1884-August 07, 1885
Willard James Taylor April 05, 1887-???
The children were born in Hugeonaut, New York and Port Jervis, New York
This is all the additional information that I have about Melissa Angeline Carpenter Taylor.
Jim Taylor of Warren, Ohio

4157. Sarah S. Carpenter

Number 1347 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
From her memorial stone: Died aged 3 years, 9 months 15 days.
This calculates out to be 27 Sep. 1854.

4158. Charles S. Carpenter

Number 1350 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
Tombstone indicates he died age 13.

Hattie Haff

She was alive in Sayville in 1900.

4159. John S. Carpenter

Number 1348 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
He was born after the Latting's first wife died, thus he should belong to the second wife. However, based on tombstone info, he died age 35 days, this makes his birth 6 Jul 1859. This makes things interesting, since he may have been conceived before Latting's first wife was deceased. Of course errors in transcription could be the reason also.

4160. Jennie Carpenter

Number 1351 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
She was a teacher at Sayville in 1893, and was alive in 1900.

4161. Sarah L. Carpenter

Number 1349 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
Tombstone indicates she died age 6 months.

1821. Charles Wesley Carpenter

Number 741 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
BIRTH: in Queens county because Nassau county was created in 1898.
He died of cancer of the tounge at the house of his brother in law, Dr.
Hammond. He had one child who died in infancy. See notes on page 253 & 254.
